Churchill's Condition Unchanged

Editorial Hits Business Delay; Fire Near Home

LONDON (UPI) — Sir Winston Churchill's illness set off a controversy today as to whether Britain should do business as usual while he is fighting for his life.

The mid-day medical bulletin reported Churchill had spent a quiet night and his condition was unchanged. A week ago today he suffered a massive stroke. There was a flurry of alarm this morning when a fire broke out in an apartment 50 yards from the Churchill residence, which was not endangered. The fire was put out quickly.

MATTER WHISPERED

A front-page editorial in the London Daily Mirror brought into the area of public discussion a matter that has been whispered for three days.

The Daily Mirror noted that Prime Minister Harold Wilson had postponed a diplomatic trip to West Germany and cancelled a speech to the nation reporting on his first 100 days in office because of Churchill's illness. Then it added:

"But is it what Sir Winston himself would wish? He would be the last man to approve of postponements and cancellations of urgent matters on his account. Throughout the war years Winston Churchill had a stirring creed. He demanded 'action this day' and he got it.

"Is it not somehow off key that the illness of our greatest man of action should become, for the noblest of motives, a cause of inaction or delay?"

NO. 1 TOPIC

Churchill's condition still is the No. 1 topic of conversation and the question on all lips is how has he managed to survive this long.

One doctor, a specialist in ailments of the aged, put it this way: "Sir Winston is not so much fighting for life as he is resisting death. He would not have lived this long if his body gave up easily."

All physicians agree that the clue to Churchill's stout fight is his amazing medical history. He has survived things that would have killed a normal man twice over.

He had double pneumonia at the age of seven. In 1893 he fell out of a tree and was unconscious for three days. In his early years he suffered from tonsilitis, skin infection and eye trouble. He fell off a came lat age 47 and off a polo pony at 48. He had attacks of gastroenteritis and paratyphoid. He was operated on for appendicitis at 48 and for hernia at 72.

MILL VALLEY MINISTER IS ATTACKED IN SOUTH

Civil Rights Workers Struck After Segregationist Meeting

A Mill Valley minister on a civil rights mission to the South was assaulted last night after he and three others visited a segregationist meeting in the courthouse in Hattiesburg, Miss.

Rev. Jack Bartlett, 34, associated minister of the Mill Valley Community Church, said neither he nor his friends required medical attention, the Associated Press reported.

Bartlett left this week to work for two weeks on the Mississippi voter registration drive. He lives at 17 Plymouth Avenue, Mill Valley.

He told Associated Press that he, Dick Kelly, Dick Heitler and Steve Findley, all members of the Council of Federated Organizations, attended a meeting of the Forest Citizens Council for 45 minutes until asked to leave because of a business session.

Bartlett said the trouble began as he and his companions walked into a courthouse foyer leading to a stairwell. Two or more men assaulted them, he said.

Bartlett said he was kicked, Kelly was hit on the back of his head, Heitler was kicked in the groin, and Findley was hit on the back with a chair.

Bartlett said the attackers followed them downstairs to the sidewalk. There the civil rights workers broke away and ran.

No report was filed with Hattiesburg police.

The Forest Citizens Council was formed to promote segregation of the races. Council chairman T. W. Davis, an attorney, said that if the four men were attacked, it was not by any member of the council because the meeting continued 30 to 45 minutes after the men left, the Associated Press reported. He said he saw no one else leave the room until the meeting broke up.

Tear Gas Fired On Buddhists

SAIGON (UPI) — Police and Vietnamese paratroopers crushed Buddhist-led anti-American rioting here today with tear gas, truncheons and shots fired into the air. More than 1,000 demonstrators raced through the streets smashing windows in the U.S. library.

Scores of Buddhist monks and teen-age demonstrators were arrested during the clashes outside the U.S. Embassy building and the U.S. Information Service library. Another band of students was driven from a high school with tear gas.

Scores of Buddhist monks and teen-age demonstrators were arrested during the clashes outside the U.S. Embassy building and the U.S. Information Service library. Another band of students was driven from a high school with tear gas.

DEMAND BY MONKS

The rioting was touched off after more than 200 yellow-robed monks gathered in front of the U.S. Embassy with banners demanding that the United States withdraw its support from the government of Premier Tran Van Huong.

The crowd swelled as teenagers seeking excitement and other curious spectators rallied around the monks. The mob broke through barbed wire barricades blocking the street in front of the embassy. But they were driven back by police hurling tear gas grenades and flailing truncheons.

THROW ROCKS

The crowd fled three blocks to the American library and teen-agers hurled rocks at the windows. No injuries to American personnel were reported.

Marine M.Sgt. William A. Duam, of Rochester, N.Y., who witnessed the attack on the library, said "there were about 40 to 50 people in the group, led by a Buddhist in yellow robes."

Another American who witnessed the attack said, "these Buddhist monks are doing more in a single day to hand the whole country over to the Communists on a silver platter than the Viet Cong are able to do in a month."

Wolfe Grade Extension Stirs Debate

As expected, last night's hearing on the Kentfield Master Plan featured a debate over extension of Wolfe Grade from Sir Francis Drake Boulevard to Magnolia Avenue via Bon Air Bridge.

The audience of 200 in Olney Hall of College of Marin seemed about equally divided on the issue, with advocates for extension and its opponents both receiving applause.

The hearing was the first before Marin County supervisors. All but Supervisor William Gnoss of Novato were present last night. Supervisor Chairman Peter H. Behr cut the hearing off sharply at 10 p.m.

It began with a letter by the Kentfield Civic League opposing extension of Wolfe Grade and proposing a committee be appointed to study plans for a commercial triangle bounded by Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, College Avenue and Corte Madera Creek.

David Van Pelt of the county planning staff and Arthur T. Knutsen, assistant public works director, explained the general plan.

Knutsen said the extension of

One-Armed Bandit Finally Pays Off

It was one of nearly 100 broken one-armed bandits, of assorted designs, unearthed as Bobo's Construction Co. of Ignacio bulldozed a site on the Sinaloa Ranch for a new junior high school.

How the machines got there, nobody knows—or at least, nobody is saying.

The school district bought 25 acres of the ranch at Wilson Avenue and Vineyard Road from Mrs. Luz Garcia Pino for $210,550 for a site for a second junior high school, and hired Bobo at $5,800 to clear it.

The site clearance included demolition of the once-lavish home built for Mrs. Pino in 1944. It also included clean-up of the tangled remains of once beautiful gardens, and filling the swimming pool.

Mrs. Pino's grandniece, 18-month-old Lenore Visser, drowned in the swimming pool on May 13, 1955. Mrs. Pino moved out of the house then and never returned.

The bed of an old tributary to Warner Creek runs through the property, passing within about 100 feet of the house. There, a bulldozer blade this week turned up a rusted slot machine.

Further excavation unearthed more and more of them.

In one of the long-forgotten machines, the three bars lined up, so to speak, for Arnold Griewe, building inspector for the school district. He found two buffalo nickels in the machine—one an almost-mint condition 1928 nickel which a coin dealer said might be worth $2 or more.

Mrs. Pino said she knew nothing about the slot machines. She suggested they may have been put there before she bought the property in 1940—as the age of the nickels would indicate. She owns the Sinaloa Mexican Cantina and Restaurant in San Francisco, but said it never had slot machines.

Several longtime residents said they had never heard of the slot machine dump.

"There used to be slot ma-

Seven Seek Dismissals In Rights Killings

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP) — Attorneys for seven of the 18 men arrested in connection with the killing of the three civil rights workers asked a federal court today to dismiss charges on grounds of lack of jurisdiction.

Motions filed in U.S. District Court here also asked the Justice Department be required to produce evidence in the case, including alleged confessions and payments to any of the defendants.

Arguments on the motions are scheduled for Tuesday. Arraignment of the 18 white men is set for the following day.

The motions were filed for Jimmy Arledge, Travis Barnette, James T. Harris, Frank J. Herndon, Jimmy Snowden, Alton Wayne Roberts and Bernard L. Akin. All live in this east-central Mississippi area.

Federal marshals arrested the seven along with nine other persons last Saturday after a

Big Breakthrough Seen In Alabama

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — Negro civil rights leaders have proclaimed their testing of public accommodations here a major breakthrough.

"The good news of Tuscaloosa balanced the bad news of Selma," said Negro comedian Dick Gregory, who joined in the three-day drive. Gregory planned to leave today to return to Chicago.

Negroes ate yesterday in more than a dozen Tuscaloosa restaurants, where they had been refused service less than a year ago. There were no incidents.

At Selma, 79 miles to the southeast, city police departed from their policy of quiet compliance with the Civil Rights Act for the first time since testing began there Monday. They arrested five Negroes and a white companion who sought service at a lunch counter yesterday.

Although about 225 Negroes have been arrested by county authorities since Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. opened a civil rights drive in Selma, the six arrested yesterday were the first by city police.

The group was arrested on a warrant signed by the proprietor of a drugstore after another group was turned away. The warrant charged trespassing after warning.

At Birmingham, a white supremacist convicted of assaulting King was himself severely beaten in a barroom brawl, police said.

James George Robinson, 27, a member of the National States Rights party, received hospital treatment. He was freed on appeal bond after his conviction in Selma of assaulting King when the civil rights leader registered

Satellite Test Fails To Orbit

VANDENBERG AFB (UPI)—The failure of a piggyback research satellite launched aboard an Atlas D missile to attain an earth orbit was confirmed today by the Air Force.

"The satellite did not achieve orbit. The malfunction is being investigated," said the brief Air Force statement.

However the advanced ballistic re - entry system (ABRES) was successfully tested in the Atlas firing.

The Office of Aerospace Research (OAR) satellite was the first of its type ever launched. Scientists had hoped to gain valuable information from OAR for future orbital platforms.

Wet Weekend Is In Store

It will be another wet weekend for Marin.

The Weather Bureau predicted intermittent rain tonight and tomorrow. And there is a second storm coming in from the Pacific right behind this one.

Sprinkles returned to the county last night after some brief sunshine yesterday.

Rainfall readings as of 8 a.m. today were Point Reyes Station, .09; Woodacre and Tamalpais Valley, .07; Belvedere, .06; San Rafael, San Anselmo, Sausalito, and Mill Valley, .05, and Novato, .03.

Trustee Suggests Committee On Tam Unity Quit To End Deadlock

By ELLEN BRY

The minority member of the Reed School District board today suggested that the entire Marin County Committee on School District Organization resign to solve the "deadlock" over unification.

Mrs. Marilyn C. Steinau of Belvedere is the only member of the Reed board who favors unification of the entire Tamalpais High School District area into one school district for all grades. The Board majority has backed unification into smaller districts.

Mrs. Steinau said she made the suggestion for mass resignations, not in anger, but as one method to bring the county committee to the "realities" of unification.

Resignation of all 11 members of the committee would mean that trustee representatives from all school districts in the county would elect 1 new members. The election, Mrs. Steinau believes, would result in a county committee with a majority favoring larger unified districts.

Her idea came after she said she sat through the hour-long county committee meeting Wednesday night and heard the same arguments for and against unification that have been put forth for years.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

A Globemaster similar to this crashed into a mountain near Athens with 10 men aboard.

Planes Cut Back

TOKYO (AP) — Two squadrons of U.S. Air Force F-102 fighter-interceptors — about 40 planes — will be withdrawn from Japan and returned to the United States by July 1, Lt. Gen. Maurice A. Preston, 5th Air Force commander announced today.

'Protector Of Faith'

Radioactive Gas

LIVERMORE (AP) — A small amount of radioactive gas leaked into the University of California's nuclear laboratory this week, forcing a brief evacuation. University officials said the gas leaked from a container of tritium on Wednesday.

Governor Is Sick

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Gov. Dan K. Moore of North Carolina is in Raleigh Hospital with pneumonia, his wife is hospitalized with bronchitis. Moore, 58, who won his first term last November, has been unable to shake a cold for more than two weeks, said an aide.

Trawlers Missing

JUNEAU, Alaska (UPI)—Three 125-foot Russian trawlers were missing in the Bering Sea off Alaska today. A plane was dispatched by the 17th Coast Guard District to help in the search following a request for assistance from the Soviet Embassy in Washington.

Labor Rocked By Defeat Of Gordon Walker

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson's young Labor government rocked today under the impact of a stunning by-election defeat many observers thought might force a new general election.

Wilson came to power in the last general elections last October.

Three days short of the completion of his heralded "first 100 days" of Labor government, Wilson's foreign minister, Patrick Gordon Walker, was beaten yesterday by the Conservative candidate in Britain's most sensational by-election upset since World War II.

Labor lost ground in a second by-election although it retained the seat.

Gordon Walker's failure cut Labor's already shaky majority in the House of Commons to three, and it may mean that Wilson will have to find a new foreign secretary.

10 Believed Dead In Air Crash

ATHENS (UPI)—A U.S. Military Air Transport Service Globemaster apparently lost in a snowstorm, crashed into a mountain peak 100 miles west of Athens today and burst into flames.

Greek authorities said all 10 persons aboard were killed.

The U.S. Embassy in Athens confirmed the crash, but said it had no official word on casualties.

An American spokesman said the big four-engine plane was flying from Aviano Air Base in northern Italy to Athens when it went down near the village of Kalavryta.

Villagers in the area said the Globemaster smashed into a 5,241-foot high mountain peak and exploded. They said all passengers and crew were killed.

U.C. Professor Found Slain

CONCORD (AP)—The bullet-torn body of a University of California professor was discovered today on Buchanan Airport Road at the edge of Concord.

The body was identified by a neighbor as biochemistry Prof. David P. Hackett of Orinda. Police said he had been shot twice in the head by a .32-caliber pistol.

The discovery was made by a California Highway Patrol car shortly after midnight at the side of a paved country road. Hackett's wallet and other papers were gone.

It was reported that Hackett was last seen alive on the Berkeley campus at 3 p.m. yesterday.

Weather Satellite Launched

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Tiros 9, a mechanical meteorologist designed to roll through space on its side like a huge cartwheel, rocketed into orbit today in another step toward an operational weather satellite forecasting system.

Tiros 9 was to obtain the best camera coverage yet of the earth's weather pattern eclipsing the performance of any of its eight successful predecessors.

A three-stage Delta rocket blasted into the early morning darkness at 2:52 a.m. and shoved the 305-pound satellite into a north-south polar orbit more than 460 miles high. From this outpost in space Tiros 9 was to provide continuous pictures of the cloud cover below.

Four Cadets Quit

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (UPI) — Silence was conspicuous on the sloping grounds of the Air Force Academy today in the wake of the resignations of four cadets following an investigation into cheating. The four who resigned voluntarily from the United States' newest military school were not identified. Officials indicated more students might be involved.

Greyhound Rate Hike Opposed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Public Utilities Commission staff members opposed today a Greyhound request for a $500,000 interim rate increase pending decision on its application for higher California fares.

The staff said the interim hike was unwarranted. It said Western Greyhound Lines is not in an extreme financial position and is earning at least 4 per cent.

Greyhound wants a 5 per cent increase in statewide fares; a 20 per cent hike in commute fares from Marin, Sonoma and Contra Costa counties in San francisco, and a $2 a book raise in San Francisco Peninsula commute fares.

The company has asked that it be given an identical increase on an interim basis.

Republicans Haul Down Barry's Flag

CHICAGO (AP)—Republicans hauled down Barry Goldwater's battle-tattered flag today with the scheduled election of Ohio's Ray C. Bliss as their new national chairman.

Relaxed and smiling, Goldwater was on hand to witness the formal acceptance by the GOP National Committee of picked chairman, Dean Burch.

Bliss, 57, and a veteran party organizer since 1949, will take over from Burch April 1.

This changeover was being made in the interests of party harmony under the personal supervision of Goldwater, the 1964 presidential nominee; his running mate, William E. Miller; and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the 1960 candidate for president.

But the ultimate effect would be to remove from the party the label of Goldwater and his disastrous defeat in November's election.

ONE TENT

The party progressives, who had accused Burch of freezing them out of the organization, were satisfied with Bliss, a political technician, who could be counted on to bring all elements under the GOP tent.

There were rumblings of discontent from some Southern conservatives. They professed to believe they had been sold out by Goldwater's decision to compromise with the opponents of Burch.

But any revolt from this source seemed likely to be short-lived.

The party's executive committee, most of whose members were appointed by Burch, approved the changeover in a closed meeting yesterday.

FAVORABLE VIEW

Goldwater, appearing at closed committee sessions and mixing within the crowd at a reception, said Republican prospects are good in 1966 because President Johnson has proposed in the "Great Society" a comprehensive program "without knowing where the money will come from."

"The long-term trend will favor us," he said.

Nixon, lending his prestige to the changeover in party command, predicted the Republicans will stage a comeback next year.

The 1960 nominee gave qualified approval to a proposal advanced by GOP congressional leaders for a party coordinating committee which would link them to Republican governors and national party leaders for policy studies and declarations.

With $503,000 in the till from last year's campaign contributions, the Republicans laid out an ambitious program of spending a record $4.6 million in 1965, considerably more than the $2.7 million the GOP spent in the 1963 off-election year.

The party's fiance committee approved a $1.8-million "victory" budget on top of its regular operating costs of $1.7 million. It set aside $735,000 for House campaign expenditures and $329,000 for Senate contest outlays.

Man Killed In Triple Collision

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A 37-year-old man was killed last night when his car reportedly set off a triple collision 12 miles south of Sacramento in Elk Grove.

The victim was James E. Polhemus of Elk Grove. The Highway Patrol said his car struck the rear of a pickup truck, which crashed into a third vehicle.

Dolphus B. Stout, 28, of Sacramento, a passenger in the Polhemus car, and Charles L. Pearson, 35, of Elk Grove, the truck driver, suffered minor injuries.

Russia Warns Indonesia Against War

LONDON (UPI) — The Soviet Union has warned Indonesia against forcing the West into an armed conflict over Malaysia, informed diplomatic sources said today.

The Soviets, who have been supplying the bulk of Indonesia's arms, have strongly urged President Sukarno to tread more carefully to avoid war, the sources said.

Behind the Kremlin move lies the fear of possible direct or indirect Soviet involvement in any such conflict. But above all there is growing uneasiness in Moscow about Communist China's mounting influence in Southeast Asia, diplomats said.

The Soviet Union's call for moderation by Indonesia is not motivated by any "sympathy" for the West or, more especially for Britain, the sources emphasized. They hinted that the Kremlin may have been particularly worried by reports of a possible military pact between Jakarta and Peking.

Russian displeasure with Sukarno's brinkmanship was spotlighted by open Soviet criticism of Indonesia's decision to quit the United Nations.

While Peking was praising Indonesia's decision as "wise and resolute," Moscow openly rebuked Sukarno by telling him this was not the way to behave.

Since then, the Soviets were reported to have told the Indonesians that they are largely dependent on Russian arms and therefore should not minimize the Moscow warning, the sources indicated.

The Soviets have supplied vast amounts of arms to Indonesia, including weapons, tanks, planes, ships and submarines.

Estimates place the total value of Russian assistance to Indonesia so far at $1 billion.

The Communist Chinese also have supplied some arms to Indonesia and recently they offered Sukarno's government $50 million in economic assistance.

Longshoremen Accept East Seaboard Pact

NEW YORK (UPI)—Acceptance of a four-year contract by port of New York and Virginia longshoremen brought the Atlantic and Gulf Coast dock strike closer to settlement today. A continuing dispute in southern ports blocked final agreement.

Buoyed by the overwhelming rank and file approval yesterday of once-rejected contract terms, the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) policy makers met today to consider ways to speed the men back to their jobs. No return to work order was likely, however, until agreements are reached in the stalemated Gulf Coast bargaining.

ILA and shippers negotiating teams resumed talks in New Orleans and Houston today under increased pressure from the East Coast settlement. Bargaining at Mobile, Ala., was to begin today or tomorrow. Assistant Secretary of Labor James J. Reynolds, the government's top waterfront labor mediator, was prodding the New Orleans talks, which began Thursday after a 12-day recess.

At Houston, J. E. Williams, secretary of the South Atlantic and Gulf Coast ILA district, said last night he did not expect East Coast longshoremen to return to work "until we're ready here to go to work."

Socialite Teen-Ager Dies In Fall

NEW YORK (UPI) — A teenage socialite plunged to her death last night from her grandmother's 16th story duplex penthouse.

Ellen Farnsworth Loomis, 17, the daughter of a New England medical scientist whose entire family is listed in the New York Social Register, was killed instantly in the fall onto a fashionable residential street a few doors from Central Park.

The pretty, blue-eyed brunette's body was found by a cab driver and a doorman outside 21 East 79th Street, between Fifth and Madison avenues. A note was pinned to the junior debutant's chest.

Police withheld the contents of the note, but they indicated the girl, a sub-debutante in Boston social circles, was despondent over her parents' separation.

Known as "Debbie," Miss Loomis was the daughter of Dr. William Farnsworth Loomis, 50, of Cambridge, Mass., a 1936 Harvard graduate and currently a leading biochemist at Brandeis University in Waltham, Mass.

Dr. and Mrs. Loomis, the former Betty B. Baron of Fairfax, Va., and their three children, Ellen, N. Barton, and E. Jacqueline, formerly lived in Greenwich, Conn., where the biochemist operated the Loomis laboratory. The mother is estranged from her husband and lives in Boston.

Lumber Industry Denies Charge

EUREKA (UPI) — The Redwood Region Conservation Council denied Wednesday that the lumber industry could be held responsible for damage caused by the Christmas week floods in Northwest California.

The council is a public relations arm of the lumber industry and other enterprises in the area.

Conservation groups have charged that excesses by the lumber industry, including the removal of watershed forests, contributed to the magnitude of the disastrous floods.

The council replied that such accusations could not be substantiated.

Mitchell Is Named Conservation Aide

Michael Mitchell, Marin County auditor — controller, has been appointed director of the Marin Conservation League, announced Mrs. Mary Summers, president.

Mitchell, who resides at 22 Loma Vista Avenue, Larkspur, succeeds William E. Haney of Ross, whose resignation was accepted this week by League directors.

Bill Would Stiffen Driver License Rules

SCRAMENTO (AP)—You'd have to take driver improvement training to get your revoked or suspended license back under a bill introduced yesterday by Assemblyman Tom Carrell, D-San Fernando.

Carrell said ignorance of the law was to blame for many violations that result in license suspensions or revocations.

Sausalitan Gets Jail For Fraud

Richard Kenneth Dix, 24, alias Marshall Theodore Hoesting, was sentenced to 30 days in Marin County jail yesterday in Marin Municipal Court on his guilty plea to three misdemeanor counts of fraudulent disposal of property he didn't own.

He also pleaded guilty to a fourth count of obtaining property under false pretenses. For this, Judge Joseph G. Wilson gave Dix, of 317 Caledonia Street, Sausalito, an additional 11-month suspended jail term and placed him on two years probation.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Donald E. Paterson said Dix is also wanted in Los Angeles County for questioning in connection with forgery, robbery, and assault with a deadly weapon cases.

The Marin County charges were for disposing of two motorbikes and a set of encyclopedias, and selling another motorbike under false representation. All occurred between Dec. 2 and Dec. 13, officers said.

He was arrested Saturday by San Rafael police for allegedly running away with a boat he had not paid for. No charge was filed in that incident.

New Agency Proposed On Defense Cutbacks

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A new state Commission on Economic Conversion to help California's economy survive cutbacks in military spending was proposed yesterday in a bill by Assemblyman John L. Burton, D-San Francisco.

"With over a half-million of California's work force working in space and defense-related industries, it is imperative that California take the lead in setting up a state commission to plan for the day when the defense industry will not be California's leading employer," Burton said in a statement.

The Mount Washington Railway in New Hampshire, completed in 1869, is not only the oldest mountain-climbing railroad in the country, but it is also the oldest cog railroad in the world.

State Flood Areas Due $24 Million

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Three flood - stricken Northern California areas have been slated for $24 million in fedeal reconstruction funds.

Democratic senators Carl L. Christensen of Eureka, Frank S. Petersen of Ukiah and Virgil O'Sullivan said yesterday the money will be made available under the federal disaster relief law.

The three made their joint statement after meeting with state and federal officials and representatives of the transportation and lumber industries.

Petersen said the main rebuilding work will remain even though the aid will lessen the area's immediate need for funds.

Robert B. Bradford, administrator of the state's highway Transportation Agency, said air lifting supvlies will end this week when truck convoys start moving supplies into previously isolated areas of Mendocino and Humboldt counties.

He also said it's doubtful that rail service can be resumed before July. Three major railroad bridges and 100 miles of track must be rebuilt in the area.

Thieves Pen Sour Grapes Message

Frustrated burglars at De-Long Chevrolet at 555 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, left a sour grapes note which mechanics found when they arrived at work Wednesday morning.

"You left the door open. We looked around and felt sorry for you so we just left," the note said. San Rafael police promptly sent the note to Sacramento for handwriting and fingerprint analysis.

The burglars struggled over a barbed wire fence around the De Long building, walked in an open door, rummaged through the parts department, tried to remove the transmission from a car, and wound up with a measly 75 cents which they took from a glove compartment.

"We don't keep any money in the parts and service department," said Clarence De Long, owner.

Wilderness Film

Naturalist Charles T. Hotchkiss of Homestead, Fla., will speak and show a film on "Wilderness Trails," featuring four national parks, Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at Olney Hall, College of Marin.

Legislators Waiting For Budget Message

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California legislators were on a long three-day weekend today, awaiting Gov. Brown's presentation of the annual budget message.

The chief executive will send the "bare-bones" budget to the lawmakers Monday morning. He has no plans to address a joint session of the Assembly and Senate as he did at the opening of the legislative session.

The governor already has indicated he will recommend a two-step fiscal plan — one section covering only the basic needs of California, the other suggesting new programs but leaving it up to the legislature to decide what project to approve and how each should be financed.

The California spending program still is expected to be close to $4 billion, the biggest ever for any state.

Vying with the budget for legislative attention was the continuing problem of reapportionment.

Assemblyman Charles J. Conrad, R-Sherman Oaks, former house minority leader, sharply criticized a proposed bill to permit the at-large election of the state's 40 senators.

Conrad said he was "appalled at this proposed constitutional amendment." Sponsors of the measure were Sens. John C. Begovich, D-Jackson, and Stephen P. Teale, D-West Point.

Conrad said, "Illinois went through that sort of chaos when their legislature failed to agree on a reapportionment bill."

"Another evil," he added, "is the possibility that at some election, 40 Republicans or 40 Democrats would be elected in a package deal, thus creating a one-party state."

Conrad also said it would be difficult "even for a conscientious voter to make an intelligent decision on 40 senators residing throughout the state of California."

Also on the reapportionment front, Assemblyman Robert W. Crown, D - Alameda, called on Gov. Brown to make a strong court defense of the current Assembly lineup. State officials have been ordered to defend the lower chamber apportionment in federal court next month.

Crown, who wrote the bill reapportioning the Assembly after the 1960 census, said "The Assembly districts created by the reapportionment acts of 1961 were forced in accordance with the state and federal constitutional requirements existing at that time."

Coordinated Plan Needs Discussed By Citizen Group

The Citizens Advisory Committee on Development of Marin Wednesday discussed need for coordinated planning for Marin.

Representatives of 17 organizations participated but there was no stand taken by the committee, reported Mrs. E. F. Pierce, committee chairman.

Dr. William F. Upton, a member of the Marin County Planning Commission; Harvey Bragdon, Mill Valley planning director, and Mrs. Carol Staley, representing the League of Women Voters, addressed the group.

Mrs. Pierce said there would be a follow-up meeting on the planning issue, but the date is not set.

Intoxicated Driver Gets Fine, Jail Term

William Neal Purvine, 52, of 807 Palmera Way, San Rafael, was fined $276, sentenced to five days in Marin County jail and placed on two years probation yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

He was arrested Oct. 3 on San Pedro Road and convicted by jury trial.

federal grand jury returned indictments charging the civil rights of the trio had been violated. Two more arrests followed on Monday.

The bodies of Michael Schwerner and Andrew Goodman, both white and of New York, and Negro James Chaney of Meridian, were found beneath an earthen dam near Philadelphia, Miss., 44 days after they disappeared June 21. All three had been shot to death.

Indictments by the jury charged the 18 with conspiracy to violently deny civil rights of the trio and the second alleged the 18 men took part in a conspiracy involving law enforcement officers to illegally punish the trio.

Among the 18 arrested were Neshoba County Sheriff Lawrence Rainey and his chief deputy, Cecil Price.

Speeding Cycle, Auto Collide

A Sausalito man was cited for speeding yesterday after his motorcycle struck the rear of an automobile at Bridgeway and Easterby Streets and he and his passenger were thrown out.

Driver James Jensen, 27, of the houseboat Bat Eang, at Waldo Point, was in satisfactory condition today in San Rafael General Hospital with a fractured right leg. His passenger, Donald Fleischer, 21, of 161 Scenic Avenue, Fairfax, was in satisfactory condition in the same hospital with a fractured left ankle.

Police said Jensen, in attempting to pass a car driven by Frank Morrison Turley of 142 Filbert Street, Sausalito, struck the rear of Turley's car while both vehicles were moving north at 5:30 p.m.

Humphrey Takes Up Senate Gavel

WASHINGTON (AP) — A smiling Hubert H. Humphrey presided over the Senate today for the first time as vice president.

"I expect to spend a good deal of time here," the former Minnesota senator told newsmen just before he used the presiding officer's ancient gavel.

Humphrey greeted newsmen, senators and officials in the small but ornate ceremonial office assigned to the vice president just off the Senate floor.

Asked if he expected to do some "arm twisting" in behalf of President Johnson's ambitious "Great Society" legislative program, Humphrey said he would only use "mutual respect, good fellowship, brotherhood and love."

No Backing For Boat License Plan

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The State Small Craft Harbors Commission refused to endorse proposals yesterday that would require pleasure boat operators to carry auto drivers licenses with them.

The intent of the requirement was to prevent anyone under 16 years of age from driving a boat, explained Arbis D. Shipley, member of the Lake County Board of Supervisors which had made the proposal.

The commission did take action to initiate a five-year moratorium on the repayment of small craft harbor project loans to the state in areas where such projects develop slowly.

After a debate on the proposed boating restrictions, the commission ordered its staff to make a statistical study of any required legislation.

The Lake County proposal is incorporated in a bill introduced in Sacramento by State Sen. Frank S. Petersen, D-Ukiah.

Shipley said the supervisors' Clear Lake boating accident in which the whole county had been aroused by a 14-year-old boat driver who was pulling a water skiier and ran through another craft, killing its owner.

Library Books Complaint Filed

Misdemeanor complaint was filed by the Marin County district attorney's office today against two Mill Valley residents who allegedly failed to return a total of eight books borrowed from the City of Mill Valley Public Library.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Gary W. Thomas said Lyla Lawson and L. R. Whideaux of 86 Washington Park Avenue, are charged with violation of a state ordinance in the Education Code in allegedly detaining return of the books despite a 30-day written notice.

He said the books were found defaced and discarded in Samuel P. Taylor Park by a ranger last Wednesday.

Tumor Is Removed From Sen. Johnston

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — A tumor was removed today from the abdomen of Sen. Olin D. Johnston, D-S.C., and scheduled heart surgery was delayed.

Dr. Daniel W. Davis said the tumor was discovered after surgery was started on the 68-year-old Johnston to remove a blister on the aorta, the main arterial trunk to the heart.

chines all over Novato at one time," recalled Fire Chief George Cavallero. "They could have come from any one of a number of places."

Eugene F. DeBrecht, assistant superintendent of the school district, laid claim to the nickels for the district.

He suggested they be framed and hung in the hall of the new school, when it is built.

"We could name it Buffalo Junior High School," he proposed.

As for the slot machines, they were re-interred — in the county dump.

Petitions Out For Sewers

Bret Harte area residents today began circulating petitions for formation of a special improvement district to provide sanitary sewers for 83 homes.

At an information hearing before the San Rafael sanitation District board yesterday, about 50 area residents heard preliminary engineering estimates that the project might cost a maximum $1,200 to $1,500 per home.

The county health department has reported septic tank failures in the hill area, and has questioned ability of the sail to handle more sewage, sanitation district secretary John F. McInnis explained.

Stephen M. Heller, 177 Bret Harte Road, is in charge of circulating the petitions.

Sleepy Hollow Group Elects

Other new officers are R. Bryant Miley, vice president; John Bullis, treasure, and directors William Duffield, Alfred F. Porter and Jack T. Cambell.

Re-elected were Mrs. Thekla Dechent, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Terry Hauge, recording secretary.

Army Reports Debris In Bay Is Very Heavy

The Army Corps of Engineers reported today that the concentration of debris in San Francisco Bay is heavier this year than ever before, and attributed this to the heavy Christmas season rain.

About 40 tons of debris was picked up this morning off the Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District pumping plant and another 40 tons was expected to be collected today in Racoon Straits.

An Army spokesman at the corps incinerator at Sausalito said the average per day for the last couple of months has been 150 tons for the San Francisco Bay. "We're not nearly taking care of the bay at this time," he said.

Robert Justice, park ranger at Stinson Beach State Park, said the debris at Stinson Beach may be a little heavier this year but "not to a great extent."

A tomales Bay State Park employee reported there is no greater amount of debris there than normal.

UNITY

day night on whether to place the Tam unification plan on the ballot again, all five favorable votes came from Tam district residents, Mrs. Steinau said. Among the opposition was David D. Ring of her own Reed district.

The total Tamalpais district unification plan was defeated last June by 16,192 to 14,582 votes. This was not a decisive margin, Mrs. Steinau said. She noted that the Novato - San Jose district merger was approved by voters only on its fourth try at the polls.

She termed plans for smaller districts within the present Tam boundaries "delaying tactics" by persons who hope to get state legislation changed to retain small school districts.

But the "realities" are, Mrs. Steinau said, that the makeup of the legislature indicates there will be no change; that the state gives unifying districts a financial bonus; that if no unification plan is agreed upon, state schools officials eventually will step in with a plan for unification of the entire county, which she does not favor.

Academy Board Of Trustees Streamlined

San Rafael Military Academy's board of trustees streamlined its operations last night, and began groundwork on a long-range master program for the 75-year-old prep school's next 20 or 25 years.

Headmaster Dr. Sumner Walters said today the 21 trustees were divided into five standing committees, to concentrate on such problems as whether the school should remain on its present 8.6-acre site, education and scholarship, finances and other matters.

The trustees henceforth will meet only every other month, with committee sessions between, Dr. Walters explained.

The land committee will meet next week—the date is not yet set—with several groups proposing alternate campus locations.

Worker's Finger Lost In Accident

A construction worker lost a finger in an accident yesterday while working on a parking ramp at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Edward Theis, 34, of Santa Fe Springs, Los Angeles County, an employee of Hunt Processing Co. of the same city, was working with a concrete saw when his glove caught in the chain, the base information office reported. The third finger of his right hand was mangled.

He was given emergency treatment at Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital and the finger was amputated at Terra Linda Medical Center, according to base officials.

Novato Chamber Office Moving

The Novato Chamber of Commerce will move tomorrow from the Patio Building at 864 Grant Avenue to the Locke Plumbing building at 865 Sweetzer Avenue.

An open house in the new quarters has been scheduled from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. next Wednesday, announced Richard Nave, president.

Young Driver Fined

Gerald Lengyel McBride, 19, Bolinas, was fined $166 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. He was arrested Dec. 21 on Highway 101 by Marin County sheriff's officers.

port a government which is reactionary, anti - revolutionary and against the Vietnamese people."

U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor arrived at the embassy during the demonstration. He stepped from his car and walked directly into the embassy. He came out on to a balcony briefly, then went inside to attend a reguarly scheduled conference before the shots and tear gas were fired.

Tearful monks streaming through the area attracted supporters. Some of the monks were carried as if unconscious.

Vietnamese army helicopters hovered overhead. Troops in front of the building carried rifles with fixed bayonets and submachineguns.

The demonstration broke out as several hundred policemen and troops stood guard at the National Buddhist Center where five monks were in the third day of a hunger strike aimed at forcing the overthrow of the government of Premier Tran Van Huong.

In a military development, at least six U.S. Army helicopter crewmen were wounded in two separate clashes with Communist guerrillas Thursday. There was an unconfirmed report of a seventh casualty, according to a U.S. military spokesman.

Novato Public Parking Sought

The Novato Downtown Improvement Assn. last night decided to try to find temporary public parking to serve Grant Avenue shoppers.

Robert Lagle, city planner, volunteered his services to make a preliminary study of vacant areas that could be used for parking until a city-wide parking plan has been adopted by the city. He will report to the Feb. 18 meeting of the association.

The association also discussed how to speed up the program of refurbishing old store fronts along lower Grant Avenue but took no action.

Quentin's Phone Service Is Cut

Telephone service to San Quentin Prison and more than 300 business and residential telephones in eastern San Rafael was cut off at 11:25 a.m. today when digging equipment at the San Rafael sewer plant chewed into a 500-pair underground telephone cable, cutting 350 of them.

Gordon C. Davenport, San Rafael Manager for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., said emergency repairs were being made The accident caused delays in dial tone for other San Rafael telephone users for about five minutes, Davenport reported.

Service was interrupted out Point San Pedro Road to Glenwood as well as along Francisco Boulevard.

Hovercraft 'Is Assured For Bay Use'

OAKLAND (AP) — Passenger operation of hovercraft on San Francisco Bay is assured, Oakland officials said today, by federal approval of a $708,207 grant by the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

The hovercraft would operate between terminals in Oakland and San Francisco.

Edward G. Brown, president of the Oakland board of port commissioners, estimated the total program will cost $1,062,311; that preliminary tests will be made by March or April, and that passenger service should start by August.

The skimmer vehicle operation will be a joint venture by San Francisco - Oakland Helicopter Airlines, Inc., Textron's Bell Aerosystems Co. of Buffalo, and the Port of Oakland.

The hovercraft, carrying 15 to 29 passengers, is capable of speeds up to 75 miles an hour over land or water. It is powered by a 1,000-horsepower turboshaft engine. It derives its support from a compressed air cushion forced downward by ducted fans. The craft skims over water or land at a height of several inches to several feet.

The federal grant is for a 20-month period. During the first six months two hovercraft will be leased from Bell, terminals will be acquired, rates and schedules will be set, and personnel will be trained in operation and maintenance.

The second phase will be the 12-month operational period, and the third, a two-month evaluation period.

The application proposes 10 departures daily except Saturdays and Sundays from Olkand International Airport to a terminus at downtown San Francisco.

Fresh Blizzards Strike England

LONDON (AP) — Fresh blizzards hit Britain today, blocking roads and cutting off remote villages. Worst hit area was Wales, where snoplows tried to cut through drifts to mountain villages.

Gales lashed the coast of southern England. At Margate, a 15-year-old boy was caught by a giant wave Thursday and swept to his death.

Sander Is Stolen

Theft of a $90 floor sander from the automobile of Walter J. Nolan, 590 Wilson Avenue, Novato, while it was parked at his home, was reported today by Marin County sheriff's officers. Nolan said the sander was owned by J. E. Kunce of 1632 Hill Road, Novato.

OBITUARIES

Charles Jordan Dies At 55

Funeral of Charlie Jordan, retired Marin City gardener, will be held Monday at 1:30 p.m. at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley.

Jordan, 55, died Wednesday at a local hospital after a long illness.

Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno. Friends may call at the mortuary after noon tomorrow.

A native of Mississippi, Jordan had lived 17 years in Marin City, last residing at Building C-20. He last worked as gardener at Hamilton Air Force Base. He was a veteran of World War II.

He is survived by his wife, Hattie Jordan; a daughter, Mrs. Lessie M. Thomas of Palo Alto; his mother, Mrs. Willie Jordan, and a sister, Mrs. Ora Lee Atkins, both of Tennessee, also by three grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

LENA MORTON

Mrs. Lena M. Morton, 79, of 997 Second Street, Novato, died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness.

She was born in Tipton, Mich. July 1, 1885. She graduated from Adrian College, Adrian, Mich., in 1909.

Her husband, Clarence J. Morton, served as a minister of several Methodist Churches in Ohio. After his death in 1948, she was a fraternity housemother at Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio, until she retired five years ago to make her home with her son, Robert Morton, in Novato.

She was a member of Sapho chapter of Order of Eastern Star of Attica, Ohio, and of the Mattica Methodist Church.

In addition to her son, she is survived by a granddaughter.

Funeral will be at 11 a.m. tomorrow in the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home in Novato. Burial will be in Cardington Cemetery.

The family prefers that tributes be gifts to the Novato Community Methodist Memorial Fund.

a change of heart

Sometimes, a deep change of heart can affect a man's whole pattern of life. He sees things differently. It's the change that comes through a clearer idea of God, when you catch a glimpse of the real meaning and joy of life. Another word for it is reformation. You're invited to hear a one-hour public lecture on this subject by Otto Bertschi of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. Title: "The Meaning of Reformation." Everyone is welcome to come and listen.

Students Stay Awake For Tam Term Paper

Nine of her fellow Tamalpais High School students went all-out for Cynthia Hurley: they stayed awake for 36 hours, with spots before their eyes, to help her with a term project.

Cynthia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hurley of 9 East Manor Drive, Mill Valley, took as subject for a term paper in physiology, "The Effect of Sleeplessness on the Ability To Control Movements."

Not a student who does things by halves, she got nine classmates to stay awake with her as "guinea pigs" to see what happened.

All 10 stayed from 7:30 a.m. last Friday to 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the Hurley home. They were not allowed coffee, tea, chocolate, or pills to keep them awake.

Every three hours, Cynthia had each of the other nine connect two dots nine and one-half inches apart with a free hand line, then draw another line parallel to that one and one inch away from it.

Dutifully, Don Hunter, Steve Pitrakis, Beth Houston, Bruce Thomson, Jerry Gicker, John Terwilliger, Vicki Gross, Robbie McCormick and Sheri Averill looked at the spots and drew the lines.

As the 10 got tireder, the lines got wigglier. And when they tried exercise to keep awake, the lines got wigglier still.

Cynthia's conclusion at the end of her term paper: "The ability to control movements decreases with lack of sleep."

Said Cynthia:

"We were not too tired Saturday. The tiredness did not really hit us until Monday with schooi.

"But Mondays are always like that."

Belvedere Fire Calls Increase

Belvedere volunteer firemen answered 34 calls during 1964, compared to only 14 calls in 1963. Property damage from fire was estimated at $7,000, mainly to homes.

Firemen were called to 14 fires, primarily in homes; tow car accidents; four resuscitator-first aid calls; six non-malicious false alarms; thre miscellaneous calls, the department reported. One fireman was injured, breaking an ankle while fire fighting.

Firemen were called to aid Tiburon fire fighters five times during the year and received help from Tiburon twice.

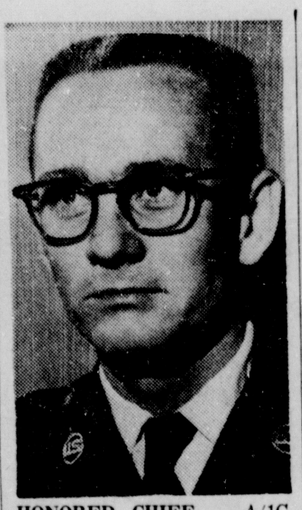
Sessions Set On Purchase Of Tidelands

The Tiburon Planning Commission and City Council will meet in special separate sessions at 8 p.m. today at Del Mar School.

In one room the council will consider wether to aid in purchase of 11.1 acres of tidelands off Strawberry. The Strawberry recreation Commission and Marin Cuonty Supervisors have already agreed to participate. Some citizen protests to the city's spending money outside its boundaries are expected to be aired tonight.

The planning commission in another room will consider planning consultant John David Erickson's preliminary proposals after studing the area which includes the Tiburon Ridge development. Developer Howard Eichen of Fullerton and the city have jointly paid for Erickson's planning study.

The commission is not expected to make a decision until its Monday meeting on the plans, which have thus far proposed 40 homes on 14 acres of land.



HONORED CHIEF — A/1C Ronald P. Sprunger, 27, of the 78th Organizational Maintenance Squadron, was named crew chief of the month at Hamilton Air Force Base. He was honored as "king for a day" by the Novato Chamber of Commerce. He and his wife live in Petaluma.

Tomales Trustees Argue For Tax Hike

Trustees of Tomales High School District argue that continuation of the district's $1.25 maximum general operating tax rate is needed "regardless of the status of redistricting or unification proposals."

Trustees have filed the argument for passage of the proposal to continue the tax rate with the county schools office.

There will be an election in the district Feb. 16 on the $1.25 rate, up 10 cents from a $1.15 rate which has been in effect for five years. If approved, the rate would continue for another five years. If it is turned down, the rate will drop back to 75 cents.

There was no argument against the proposal filed with the schools office.

Trustees said that in view of increasing costs, it is imperative that sufficient funds be made available to finance the high school.

"These funds are for day-to-day operation and are not connected with recently approved bonds," trustees said.

Besides the general operating rate which is subject to the election, the district levies over-ride taxes and taxes to pay indebtedness. This year it levied only 97.5 cents of the permitted $1.15 rate, but its total tax rate was $1.20 per $100 assessed valuation.

Sanitation Board Approves Extensions

The Novato Sanitary District board approved two extensions to subdivisions last night at its last meeting in its corporation yard office.

They are for Marin Highlands Unit 2-B off Vineyard Road and Lynwood Heights Unit 2 off South Novato Boulevard.

Future meetings of the board will be in the North Marin County Water District boardroom.

Johnson Calls Peace No. 1 U.S. Pursuit

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson believes that the "pursuit of peace" is the No. 1 item on the nation's agenda, but that the spread of nuclear weapons poses grave dangers to this goal.

The Chief Executive's comment was included in a statement issued yesterday after he met for an hour with his special committee on nuclear proliferation. The panel is headed by former Deputy Defense Secretary Roswell L. Gilpatric.

Much of the President's working day was taken up with problems of foreign policy yesterday, but it was expected that today domestic affairs — chiefly getting his program through Congress—would occupy his attention. His only announced appointment was a meeting with Senate committee chairmen.

Johnson said the future of the world "will be shaped in no small measure by what we do in the face of the complex and difficult problems posed by the spread of nuclear weapons."

But neither he nor any member of the committee would even hint at whether the special task force had made any report on its study or had put forward any recommendations.

Many Activities In Tam High Recreation

Among the activities offered in the Saturday morning recreation program at Tamalpais High School, 9 a.m. to noon, are swimming, driving, basketball, track, tumbling, gymnastics, tennis, badminton and baton twirling, according to Eddie Chavez, director.

"There is still room for more participants," Chavez said.

Bolinas-Stinson Trustee Files

Mrs. Alyce Thompson, a member of the Bolinas-Stinson School District board, has filed a declaration of candidacy for re-election to the board April 20.

Her declaration was the 11th for any school board in the county filed with the Marin County schools office since the filing period began last week.

Quentin Inmate Is Found Beaten With Throat Cut

A 24-year-old San Quentin Prison inmate was found beaten senseless with his throat cut in the prison paint shop on "maintenance alley" yesterday after lunch.

Myford G. Duncan, 24, underwent surgery for a depressed fracture on the left side of his skull and cuts on his throat and chin. Doctors said he was unconscious and in serious condition today.

Duncan was found by J. A. Bowes, a correctional officer, on a regular check of the shops.

The men leave for lunch at 11:45 a.m. and return at 1 p.m. Duncan was in the vocational painting class conducted in the paint shop. There are about 20 men in the class, said Associate Warden James W. L. Park.

Duncan's classmates were being questioned, said Park, but suspects are not limited to the class, since it is possible that Duncan's assailants slipped into the paint shop during the lunch period.

Duncan is serving six months to 15 years on two counts of second degree burglary in Riverside and San Bernardino counties. He has been at San Quentin since last May.

No weapon has been found.

SAN RAFAEL CHILDREN AID FLOOD VICTIMS

Children at MacPhail School (left) and San Pedro School in San Rafael have collected money and food for the devastated Klamath area. At MacPhail School David McIrvin, fifth grade, Ann Steiner, sixth grade, and Linda Thibodeaux, third grade, count money contributed to help rebuild Klamath School, a 14-room elementary school completely wiped out by floods. The total collected was $57.24. At San Pedro School, Gary Paterson and Linda Walker, both from the third grade, help pack canned goods collected by all the grades at the school to send to the Klamath area. The Salvation Army was to pick up the food today. (Independent-Journal photos)

$25 Million Tax Liens Recorded

Federal tax liens of 25 million dollars and filed against two San Francisco men with undeveloped land in Tiburon and Sausalito were recorded this week with the Marin County Recorder's office.

The liens, filed Monday by U.S. Internal Revenue Service in Washington, D.C., tie up assets of eight firms controlled by Harry S. Stonehill, who allegedly owes $13,613,721.51 and his partner, Robert P. Brooks, $11,182,966.

The liens are for back taxes for 1958-61. The partners own Marinship Enterprises Corp., which in turn owns 2.24 acres in the Marinship area of Sausalito. Other firm named in the Marin recorded liens is Harroman Co. Inc.

Marin County tax assessor's office records show the latter firm owns 101 acres of undeveloped land northwest of Tiburon near Mar West Street. The property has an assessed value of $65,780, which is 23 per cent of market value.

Banks were known to operate in ancient Athens.

Civic Improvement Survey Started

A dozen San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce members have begun passing out questionnaires in a community attitudes survey which the jaycees hope may lead to civic improvements.

Distribution of the questionnaires will continue through next week, said Richard F. Cuthbert Jr., junior chamber secretary.

A pilot survey already has been completed in the Terra Linda section of the city, where 125 questionnaires were passed out and about 75 per cent have been returned, Cuthbert said.

Jaycettes — members of the junior chamber's auxiliary—are tabulating the results from the pilot survey and will do those of the principal survey, in which 2,000 questionnaires are being distributed.

The questionnaires are modeled closely on those used in a similar survey last year in Novato—so closely, in fact, that one question asks whether the respondent would accept appointment to the "citizens advisory committee." San Rafael has no such committee but Novato had one at the time of the survey there.

Questions seek opinions of the quality of police and fire protection, library facilities and hours, street maintenance, etc.

One question asks, "How do you find the traffic situation in downtown San Rafael?" Then, without space between for answering the first part, it continues, "If unsatisfactory, how can we solve this problem?"

The "anti-meter cheater" parking meters which were tried but not adopted last year are mentioned in another question. Another asks whether San Rafael should have a community celebration.

In all, 38 questions are asked, with additional space for further remarks.

Marinites Pay Property Taxes

Marin County's first installment property tax collections totaled $18,599,190, Treasurer-Tax Collector Stanley J. Fontez announced today.

This is almost 54 per cent of the total charge of $34,490,968. The remainder will be collected in the second installment payments due by April 10.

Last year's first installment payments totaled $16,284,454 out of a total bill of $29,292,127, slightly more than 55 per cent.

Marin City Education Aide Is Set

Walter Bremond of San Francisco, supervisor of the Marin City Total Education Program, will open his office Monday in Marin City.

He was introduced to the Marin City Community Services District board last night by Mrs. Jacqueline Smith, program director of Marin Council of Community Services. Mrs. Smith said that there will be a meeting at 8 p.m. on Feb. 17 in the Marin City Community Lounge of agencies concerned with the total education program.

The program, to upgrade education and recreation of Marin City for persons of pre-school to old age, is being paid for by the services district and the county. Bremond, a Negro, formerly worked for the City of Oakland.

The board decided to meet with representatives of churches and other organizations who use the community building to see if they will contribute toward the $350 per month upkeep of the building. The district will take over the building from the housing authority Feb. 1.

John A. Thomson, secretary, reported the sheriff's substation will move from the Rosa building Feb. 1 into offices formerly used by the housing authority. The authority has moved to 429 Drake Avenue.

Unable to get funds from either the housing authority or redevelopment agency commissions to repair the building, the services district has received a promise of $1,500 from Friends of Marin City, said Thomson. The money must be matched by $500 by the district, of which $100 has been raised.

Sausalito Library Might Try A Poll

Professional pollsters may be hired to learn what Sausalito residents want their library to offer, Mrs. James J. Carroll, library board president, reported today.

Library trustees agreed Wednesday night to query community survey firms on the job. Plans for the future library were discussed with spokesmen from the People to People Committee, Friends of the Library and Sausalito Woman's Club.

3,500 Top State College Faculty Members Get Immediate Paycuts

NORTHRIDGE (UPI)—An immediate 1.8 per cent pay cut for some 3,500 top - level faculty members has been approved by the California State Board of Trustees.

Trustees voted yesterday, at the closing session of a two-day meeting at San Fernando Valley State College, to slash salaries of associate and full professors and certain other personnel.

Board Chairman Charles Luckman, said the pay cuts were necessary to avoid a budget deficit of $281,052 caused by an apportioning error of $2.9 million in any raises approved for state college personnel last year by the state legislature.

Luckman said the cut would amount to $10 to $17 monthly in take home pay for full professors, now receiving between $1,052 and $1,343.

Professors and teacher representatives attending the session called the action a breach of good faith. However, Luckman and State College Chancellor Glenn Dumke said they hoped the state legislature would make available emergency funds to make restitution for the lost salary.

The trustees also voted to tighten freshmen admission standards. Under the new provisions, graduating high school students must rank in the top third of their class to gain admission. Previously, students were required to be in the top 40 per cent.

Corte Madera Meets Tonight

The Corte Madera Town Council will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in a session postponed because of lack of quorum on Monday.

Major agenda items include revisions to the community antenna television ordinance and franchise and a public hearing on the proposed hotel room tax.

Also expected is action on the request of Mayor Edward W. Colthurs to call a special election April 20 for voter approval of a tax of up to six cents per $100 assessed valuation for recreation.

A special hearing Feb. 1 on flood control has been requested by the county public works department and may be discussed also.

Mill Valley Trustees Interview Architects

Mill Valley School District trustees last night interviewed two applicants for consulting architect for a proposed classroom needs study. The applicants were the fifth and sixth persons interviewed.

The board will vote on hiring one of the six at its meeting at 8 p.m. Feb. 1 at Strawberry Point School, said Supt. G. R. McConnell.

Wolfe Grade Is Topic Of Debate

Wolfe Grade would take some traffic off Drake Boulevard in the section between Wolfe Grade and Bon Air Road. The proposed extension would cut between Marin Catholic High School and Wolfe Grade School, coming within 25 feet of Wolfe Grade School building.

Knutsen said the extension would not generate more traffic but would tend to disperse it.

Those objecting to the extension claimed the road would be an added hazard for Wolfe Grade pupils.

Supt. Howard C. Harmon of Kentfield School District said there has been no assurance there would be any safety precautions taken in the extension.

The overpass over Drake Boulevard now used by school pupils would be cut off from Wolfe Grade School by the road extension.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen asked how many objecting to the project would withdraw their objections if another overpass or tunnel should be built for pupils to cross the extended road.

About 25 persons raised their hands.

Not all members of the civic league backed its letter to the board. F. Bourn Hayne, a director, said accepting the plan without Wolfe Grade extension would be like buying a "dining room table with three legs."

Hayne, who said he spoke as an individual and not a league director, declared that the bad planning occurred when the school was located south of the intersection in the first place.

Mary Summers of Kent Woodlands, former county planning director, also backed the extension but asked that it be straight across to Magnolia Avenue as originally proposed. That way it would serve more in the Kent Woodlands area.

Allen G. Wright, past president of the Kentfield Civic League, declared the proposed extension ignores the real problem which is east-west traffic and the fact that four lanes suddenly merge to two at the present Wolfe Grade intersection.

Kenneth L. Wiltz of 101 McAllister Avenue, Kentfield, said the proposed extension would produce traffic noises in his neighborhood.

The civic league's letter, submitted by president William S. J. van Erp, generally endorsed the plan, except for the extension issue. Its suggestion for a commercial study committee was not discussed last night.

In fact, the only other feature of the plan discussed last night was landscaping proposed as part of flood control development along Corte Madera Creek.

Behr said he would send a letter to the Army Corps of Engineers Monday showing how walkways and access to the creek could be developed along with flood control. The proposals were prepared by the county planning staff.

This news received general applause.

The board of supervisors will schedule a second hearing on the master plan. It will probably be at the Civic Center. The date was not fixed last night.

No Action On Rec Election

The Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission last night took no action on a proposal by Corte Madera Mayor Edward W. Colthurst for a special election April 20 on a recreation tax.

"Our hands are tied," Recreation Director Robert Bundy said of the proposal.

The commission received the proposed summer and autumn program for the Larkspur and Corte Madera areas.

The election has been informally proposed by Colthurst in spite of the fact the city may legally impose a tax of up to 20 cents for recreation with no election. The mayor wants the voters to give the town a mandate before the joint commission program is continued.

Decision Delayed

The Coordinating Council for Racial Equality in Marin last night postponed decision on hiring a fulltime professional executive director to its meeting next month.

WILLIAM A. EBERHART

Max Martin Named Hub Chamber Aide

Insurance agent Max S. Martin was named secretary of the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce by the board of directors yesterday.

Martin will take over many of the duties of former secretary-manager George G. Washburn, whose employment was terminated last week. Other directors will handle the rest of the manager's duties.

Martin's insurance office at 731 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard is also the chamber's headquarters.

Martin was elected to the board to replace director William Torrance, whose resignation was accepted "with regrets" yesterday, according to publicity chairman Richard A. Kientz.

Chamber President William A. Trewhella and the directors appointed work teams and chairman for the year as follows: By-laws, Stephen D. Burke; city government, Mozart Kaufman; merchants, Richard Silvey; cleanup, beautification and parking, Kaufman; membership, Richard Pancost; streets and highways, Robert Nolan; finance, Arthur Relfe; Christmas decorations, M. R. Davalos: civic awards, Relfe. Also named was a new "on call" team to take up anv other projects that may arise, headed by Mrs. William Mann.

The Chamber's new secretary, Martin, lives at 4 Sonoma Avenue, San Anselmo. He is 46.

He has been active in civic and service club affairs. He was twice appointed to the San Anselmo City Council, serving three-year and one-month terms. has been president of the San Anselmo Lions Club, president of the Marin County Insurance Agents Assn. He is a member of the San Rafael Elks Lodge, and Bay Area Peace Officers Assn., and has served as a director of the Marin County Mosquito Abatement District.

He is a major in the Air Force reserve and saw action in B-29 bombers during World War II.

Eberhart Wins Mill Valley Jr. Chamber Service Award

William A. Eberhart, grandson of the first mayor of Mill Valley, was presented the Mill Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce distinguished service award last night.

Eberhart, 29, is co-owner with his brother, John, of Eberhart's Mobil Service and Eberhart's Rent-A-Car and Truck Service at East Blithedale Avenue and Camino Alto. He and his wife, Sandra, and two sons, live at 111 Longfellow Road.

The award, a plaque, was presented by jaycee Robert Gaskill at the sixth annual distinguished service award dinner and bosses' night at the Outdoor Art Club.

Born in Mill Valley, Eberhart attended Mill Valley grade schools and was graduated from Marin Catholic High School. He is president of the Mill Valley Optimist Club, director of the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce, director of the Marin Visitors Bureau and a member of Tamalpais Parlor 64, Native Sons of the Golden West.

He is a special deputy of the Marin County Sheriff's Office and a Mill Valley police reserve. He is active in scouting, having been scoutmaster of Troop 77.

His grandfather who was the first mayor is Adolph Eberhart.

Judges who selected Eberhart are T. Fred Bagshaw, City Councilman Albert E. White and S. J. Weil.

Other awards presented were the "spark plug" honor to Gaskill and "key man" awards to David Ware and Jerome C. Hauke.

William E. Dauer, executive vice president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce was guest speaker.

Two Theft Cases Reported In Marin

Michael L. Meden, 6 Dutch Valley Lane, Sleepy Hollow, told Marin County sheriff's officers two magnesium wheels and tires were taken from his unlocked garage in the past few days, deputies reported yesterday. Meden valued the items at $186.

Mike J. Clisham, 17, of Santa Rosa, told officers he and a companion were surfing near Bolinas last Saturday when someone stole a $175 camera and his wallet containing $6 from his parked, unlocked car nearby.

Students Helping To Remove Mud

Twenty students at San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo, were in Garberville, Humboldt County today, helping residents remove mud.

James Martin, president of the student council at the seminary, said the students could not afford to donate money for flood relief but they could donate energy and could steal time from studies for the project.

The group, called "the Mud Patrol," left for Garberville yesterday afternoon. The seminary students will return Saturday night in order to fill regular commitments as assistants in Marin churches.

Woman Rushed To Hospital

Corte Madera police kicked open a locked door to an apartment at 12:55 a.m. today to find the occupant unconscious, with an empty pill bottle on the dresser beside her bed.

Joan Eve Haas, 47, of 940 Meadowsweet Avenue, was rushed to Marin General Hospital where she was reported in critical condition and still unconscious at mid-day.

The police acted after receiving a phone call from the woman's mother, Nada Rogers of 742 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, who said her daughter had called and said she would take her own life.

"Who says you won't have crabgrass and spurge next summer?"
(Germain's does!)
Germain's Crabgrass Preventer kills weed seeds as they germinate. Just one application and you can say goodbye to crabgrass, spurge, annual bluegrass, common chickweed and other unsightly weeds and grasses for the entire season. Safe to use, Germain's Crabgrass Preventer won't harm your lawn. Simply apply and water in. Germain's also feeds your lawn just the right amount of 10-3-0 fertilizer, keeps it green, gives it longer life. You can use it safely in and around shrubs, ornamentals, flowerbeds and ground covers for the effective control of 27 of the toughest weeds in your garden. Now is the time to apply Germain's Crabgrass Preventer, and like Germain's says, you won't have crabgrass or spurge next summer.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Road To West Marin Should One Day Provide Fine Dineries

For more than a year it has seemed to me that the country along Sir Francis Drake Highway, west from White's Hill to the coast is in line one day to provide some of the county's most interesting restaurants.

Up to now it has been and will be for some time to come a matter of close figuring as to whether the amount of traffic justifies an extensive operation. But the picture is slowly changing and ventursome restaurateurs are looking over the possibilities along here more closely.

One couple has looked, purchased — and will open next week. This is Matts and Phyllis Mattsson, who have taken over the old Lagunitas Gardens in Lagunitas and have been doing all sorts of things with it by way of remodeling. It's due to open about next Wednesday as The Old Viking.

AS THE NAME indicates, it will serve Swedish food: stuffed cabbage, Swedish meat balls, Swedish filets, jagar schnitzel, Swedish pancakes and the like. Also steaks and seafoods.

Present schedule calls for it to be open everyday except Monday for dinners from 5 to about 11 p.m. Earlier on Sundays. Wines and beers will be served.

The Mattssons are no neophytes. They had a Swedish restaurant in Rye, New York, and before that Matts worked in restaurants in both Europe and America.

There's still more to be done here, but when completed, the place should seat about 50. Plenty of off-highway parking.

A MANAGER who looks like Xavier Cugat and talks like a Frenchman, and a chef de cuisine a la Francaise with an English accent, are the principal additions at Pandora in San Anselmo

George Dumont, suave and capable, is the first. He was formerly at Sally's Valhalla in Sausalito and was manager of Rickey's Studio Inn in Palo Alto before it changed hands. New order here is just that - order. Dumont is smooth at the helm, but if you oldtimers feel he should list ever so slightly from his serious, businesslike way of handling things, give him time. Remember, he's in strange waters in this part of the country and needs time to get acquainted.

Chef Frank Smith is young, good looking and has an impressive backlog of experience from London and Paris to Chicago and San Francisco. Look for some present menu items to be removed soon and replaced with more French dishes, with perhaps a few of Frank's English specialties.

Still here are Sandy Sandoval at cocktail headquarters, his wife Betty at the tables (fast and efficient) and lovely Jean Denning at the organ bar on Friday and Saturday nights now, instead of through the week.

AMONG NEW business openings in the Northgate Shopping Center between now and March will be the Brothers 2 Restaurant, with an entrance across the mall from the Emporium and another from the west parking area.

This is described as "a family type restaurant with a huge selection of foods, featuring barbecue and hof brau kitchens offering a variety of meals. It will be open for lunch and dinner and possibly for breakfast. It should have a beer or beer and wine license, but probably not hard liquors.

The two brothers are Kris and Mike Kutsuris. Between them they own five other restaurants in the East Bay, and another one is being opened this month in the Southland Shopping Center, Hayward. Their Northgate opening is scheduled for March.

PARTNERS Dick Templeton and Gordon Jones are back from a vacation in Las Vagas, and as with all who return from that city, in a mood to replenish the exchequer. Ergo they opened Rubini's again this week and are ready to host you.

Current art display here is that of Lovell Williams of San Mateo who had a showing at Rubini's last year that was very successful.

NEW NAME for food facilities of Carl Dittes and Danny Olsen at the Country Club Bowl, San Rafael is Gourmet Joe's Country Club Kitchen. Breakfasts are now being served from 7 to 11 a.m. Mondays through Fridays. Merchants lunches those same days are from 11:30 to 2 p.m. and dinners up to 11 p.m. Restaurant is now closed on Saturdays and Sundays here, but dancing in the Candlestick Room Friday and Saturday nights.

NOW ON THE MENU for you to try at Mountain Home Inn, part way up Mount Tamalpais, are a Berliner mixed grill and a Munchner fisch filet. And if fair weather edges in, visit the outside beer deck with its panoramic view.

CHAMPAGNE HUT on Shoreline Highway, Mill Valley is featuring a special Monday night dinner at $1.35 between 6 and 9:30. This still leaves a comfortable margin for a bottle selected from the Hut's fine wine list - and dessert, if you simply must add more calories.

THERE'S A NEW TRIO at Di-Pietro's on Vivian Way, San Rafael, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights: The Town Squires, fresh from Reno, Las Vegas and other points slightly east. Good playing for dancing, with vocal arrangements and novelty acts.

Di Pietro's is not a restaurant, but a very attractive cocktail lounge. Co-owner Ron Henning claims it as having the largest dance floor in the county and also the largest indoor aquarium. Located just off Francisco Boulevard.

PEACOCK GAP is hot on rugby games these days, and tomorrow there will be a scuffle between the home team and the Peninsula Ramblers from 1:30 p.m. Following this will be a driving contest on the Peacock Gap driving range, free and open to the public. Prizes will be awarded to first, second and third place contestants for the longest drive.

Concurrently there will be a hole-in-one contest adjacent to the clubhouse. Proceeds on this will go to St. Vincent School for Boys. A golf instructional clinic will follow, and while all this is going on the clubhouse bar will feature a hot oyster stew.

RANCHO NICASIO is planning its annual March of Dimes dinner on Monday, Feb. 1. It's a big show and a lot of talent will be on the program. We suggest making reservations early.

NEW PIANO STYLIST at Blue Rock Inn, Larkspur, is Herb Inskip, who plays Friday and Saturday nights from 8:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m.

KING COTTEN, San Rafael, will reopen for business next Thursday.

Formal Dining-In Slated For Airmen

The first formal dining-in for airmen first class in the Air Defense Command will be held for airmen of the 78th Fighter Wing at the Noncommissioned Officers Open Mess at Hamilton Air Force Base tonight.

Guy Wright, columnist for the San Francisco News-Call Bulletin will be featured speaker.

Grapefruit Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Senate Agriculture Committee has approved a bill providing for shipment of grapefruit in cardboard or wooden boxes. At present, there is no specific regulation and most grapefruit are shipped in cellophane bags.

Marin Dining And Wining

Hamburger and CHAMPAGNE?

Well, not for *every*body.

You have to be 21 and come over to Sam's in Tiburon to get it.

And, if you find fulfillment in the works of Edgar Guest, Paul Harvey, Daddy Warbucks, Jane Addams, Norman Rockwell, and Henry Doelger... you might prefer to stick with Sam's tried and true Burger & Beer.

But if a spark of the bon vivant burns in your soul, your taste will be abundantly rewarded with this bizarre combination.

Sam's Anchor Cafe has even bottled its own champagne for the occasion.

A LAST GOODBYE FOR MARTYR

Reluctant martyr Sir Thomas More, played by Dale Moffit, explains the inevitability of his impending death to his daughter Margaret (Barbara Demaree) in scene from "A Man for All Seasons," playing at the Festival Theater at San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays at 8:30 p.m.

Other Side Is Heard On Fill Moratorium

Open space and parks are fine, but someone must pay for them.

That is the main argument of stockholders in Marin Canalways and Development Co. who claim that the moratorium on filling their submerged lands will cost them $130,000 a year.

Harold F. Riede, a stockholder and attorney for the company, has written the Marin County Board of Supervisors, to present the firm's views on bay fill moratoria. The supervisors have been discussing some sort of "freeze" on tidelands fill projects.

The company's 640 acres is within the City of San Rafael and would not be affected by action of the supervisors. There are 160 acres west of and within the levee running north and south below San Rafael Canal. The balance of the land lies east of and outside the levee.

The San Rafael City Council Monday voted to issue no permits for fill outside the levee until the city's general plan is adopted.

Riede wrote the supervisors that the moratoria proposed so far in Marin County would freeze land with an approximate value of 50 million dollars.

Riede's letter states that stockholders of Marin Canalways would be out of pocket $130,000 a year on taxes, maintenance and interest.

A moratorium proposed for two years could easily be extended and 10 years might be needed to determine what to do with San Joaquin Valley drainage water, Reide continues.

"While the issue of parks and open space is a pouplar one and is sometimes a good political issue, we are very sure that our fellow citizens and your constituents will not wish to buy parks and open space for themselves without paying their fair share and while imposing the above type of burden on the property owner who happens to be the victim," Riede wrote.

Judge Samuel W. Gardiner, also a stockholder in Marin Canalways, added the following note to Riede's letter:

"Before anyone votes to require that we donate everything we own to parks and playgrounds and to the cause of keeping Marin rural and rustic he should, in good conscience, first convey and donate every inch of land he owns to the same good cause."

Harbor Delay Talk Put Over

The State Small Craft Harbors Commission, meeting in San Francisco yesterday, put over discussion of Mill Valley's request for a delay in completion of its small craft harbor.

The city is asking the delay in order to determine if the Army Corps of Engineers plans to dredge a permanent canal into the boat basin.

The harbor commission will discuss the request at its next meeting, Feb. 7 in Redondo Beach.

No Dead End

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—What's in a name. Well, it can be displeasing to some folks if a street is called a "dead end," according to Arthur Daniel, traffic engineer. Street signs are being replaced to read "No Outlet" instead of "Dead End."

Old Log Cabin Might Be Hq. For Day Camp

Headquarters for a summer day camp at Boyd Park in San Rafael may be housed in the 100-year-old log cabin which was carefully dismantled on city property and C Street and Mission Avenue and transfered to the park.

"We aren't going to reassemble the cabin until the recreation commission considers preliminary sketches of a general redevelopment of the playground and picnic areas at Boyd Park," Joseph D. Rodota, recreation director, said today.

"We hope to have the cabin rebuilt this spring, ready for use in a day camp or recreation program there.

"We are concerned, though, because picnickers have been pulling the bark from the logs to start barbecue fires with. I hope that people will realize the historical significance of the numbered logs and leave them alone."

The cabin was built by Charles Fish, a Carson City miner and district recorder, about 100 years ago, according to Walker Vaning of 1309 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, who remembers playing in it as a boy.

"Fish sold the cabin and the big house next door to a Carr family. The two Carr boys, David and Richard, and I used to play in the cabin," said Vaning, who retired four years ago as San Rafael's assistant fire chief after 42 years' service.

The D. W. Martens family purchased the land from the Fish Estate sometime in the 1920s and made an apartment out of the cabin, he said.

Indians referred to Mount Marcy in the Adirondacks as "cloud splitter."

Now, for readers, the I-J adds world-wide United Press International Wire Photo Service for greater photographic coverage of world events

From now on you'll be seeing even greater selection of world news photographs in the I-J. That black box you see at the right is our latest installation . . . United Press International's electronic "magic machine" which turns an impulse into an image—a photograph from Africa, for instance, within 7 minutes.

We already had Associated Press wire photo service. Now we have the world wired in with TWO electronic networks . . . the continents of news coming at the speed of light.

This is just one more of the many innovations in I-J news coverage . . . part of our continuing program of keeping you widely informed.

Editor's choice

Today is Friday, Jan. 22, the 22nd day of 1965 with 343 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last phase. The morning stars are Mercury, Venus and Mars. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

English poet Lord Byron was born on this day in 1788.

On this day in history:

In 1789, the first American novel—"The Power of Sympathy" by Sarah Morton—was published in Boston.

In 1901, Queen Victoria of England died, ending a 64-year reign, the longest of any sovereign over a civilized nation.

In 1932, President Herbert Hoover enacted into law a measure establishing the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

In 1963, French President De Gaulle and West German Chancellor Adenauer signed a treaty pledging cooperation in foreign policy, defense and cultural affairs.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Pair Of Red Fives Puzzles Defender In This Hand

The first rule of signalling is to play a high card to show strength and a low card to show weakness.

If your partner doesn't know when a card is high and when it is low, that's his hard luck. Any good partner should know the difference between a five of hearts and a five of diamonds.

Opening lead — ♣ Q

West led the queen of clubs, and South held off. Since East had made a civilized signal with the nine of clubs, West continued with the 10 of clubs. This time, of course, South won the trick.

TWO ROUNDS

Declarer drew two rounds of trumps with the king and ace, pausing for thought when West discarded the five of hearts. This happened to be the highest heart West could spare, but it didn't look impressively high.

South next led the eight of diamonds, and West followed with the five. East won with the ace of diamonds, wondering what was going on.

His partner had played two red fives, and East couldn't tell which was high and which was low.

WRONG ASSUMPTION

East returned a trump on the assumption, often sound, that it must be a good idea for the defenders to lead trumps if declarer abandons the suit.

In this case South had no objection to drawing the last trump; he had just been unwilling to give West the chance to clarify his discards.

Declarer won the trump return, cleared dummy's queen of diamonds out of the way and returned to his hand by ruffing a club to discard a heart from dummy on the good king of diamonds.

HEART LOSS

This limited the heart loss to two tricks, assuring the contract.

If East had understood the difference between the two red fives, he would have tackled the hearts upon being given his ace of diamonds.

The defenders would then get three heart tricks, defeating the contract.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player jumps to two spades.

♣ Q 10 4

What do you say?

Answer: Bid three hearts.

This is a stretch, of course, but you cannot afford to be shut out when you have fine heart support and a singleton in the opponent's suit. Your partner should make allowance for the probability that you have been forced to overbid.

HAPPINESS IS HELPING

HAPPINESS IS HELPING

In the time it takes a lot of us to eat dinner, cerebral palsy will strike,

Somewhere in America, it strikes every fifty-three minutes every day in the year.

It cripples cruelly. But that is merely the beginning.

Cerebral palsy's damage ranges far beyond the child. It may cripple the family's finances; their normal relaxation. And, where there are other children, it can absorb their share of deeply needed affection.

Nothing known to man approaches its power to cripple infants in so many ways . . . in such a dismaying variety of ways.

Their arms, legs, vertebrae, neck muscles, speech, their breathing apparatus, their balance, their hands.

Those are some of the reasons cerebral palsy has been called our cruelest crippler.

Tragically, it strikes babies, for the most part. It results from a tiny injury to the brain, before, during, or soon after birth. But it can strike anyone. At any time.

One of its most baffling aspects is that rugged health in the parents doesn't count at all. Cerebral palsy can strike in the healthiest family.

What is being done about it?

United Cerebral Palsy carries on a year-round, two pronged attack. One corps battles here, in Marin, using the weapons of therapy, education, and recreation. Your Marin County United Cerebral Palsy chapter uses THREE-FOURTHS of your donation locally to provide speech therapy and personnel; special equipment . . . wheel chairs, walkers, therapeutic and instructional aid; camperships; specialized swimming instruction; scholarships for students specializing in education of the handicapped and scholarships for the cerebral palsied.

TWENTY-FIVE per cent of your donation goes toward the supporting attack, nation-wide, which fights unremittingly with research to forge the key to prevention.

In 15 years, United Cerebral Palsy has poured millions into research and training.

This wide-ranging, stubborn crippler is our problem. It is our problem because any crushing hardship cries out with an undeniable appeal.

Cerebral Palsy's burden is such an overwhelming one that it must be shared. This year there will be no door to door solicitation. During the last week of January of this year you will receive in the mail further information on United Cerebral Palsy of Marin, Inc., Box 923, San Rafael, California. Telephone 479-3880. Your contribution is most appreciated and is needed to continue this program.

Gratefully yours,

Stocks Close Mixed; Recovery Underway

NEW YORK (AP)—Airlines rallied and the stock market closed mixed today with a recovery move under way. Trading was fairly active.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5 million shares compared with 4.8 million yesterday.

Losses of scattered blue chips dampened the averages but a wide variety of selected issues

Texaco was down more than 2; Chrysler nearly a point; Sears, Roebuck and American Telephone fractions .

Also up about 1 were Liggett & Myers, Woolworth, Pennsylvania Railroad, IBM and Xerox.

Burroughs dipped fractionally in profit taking. Ryder Systems also lost a fraction in active trading.

Motorola rose about 2.

Prices were generally higher in active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were mostly unchanged.

Stock Split Is Approved

Stockholders of Ross Valley Savings and Loan Assn. approved a 100-for-one stock split at their annual meeting this week.

Dr. Earle M. Young, president of the association, said Ross Valley's next move will be to present the proposal to the state savings and loan commissioner.

Dr. Young announced election of Mrs. Claudia Goldthwaite, a longtime employee, to the board of directors. Mrs. Goldthwaite retired as vice president Jan. 15, following announcement of her impending marriage to James L. Callan of San Rafael.

John Zandstra, who recently joined Ross Valley Savings as an accountant, was appointed treasurer. Zandstra served for three years as treasurer of an East Bay savings and loan association. He is expected to move to Marin County shortly.

PERMANENT POST — Albert C. Agnew Jr. has been appointed controller of Redwood National Bank. For the past year he has worked with bank officials as a consultant. Until the end of 1964 he was also business administrator at San Rafael Military Academy. Agnew and his wife and two children reside at 342 Hickory Lane, Terra Linda.

Five Oil Companies Sued For Antitrust Damages

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mohawk Petroleum Corp. sued five other oil companies yesterday for $4.8 million dollars in antitrust damages.

Defendants in the U.S. District Court action are Shell, Continental, Gulf, Douglas and Wilshire oil companies.

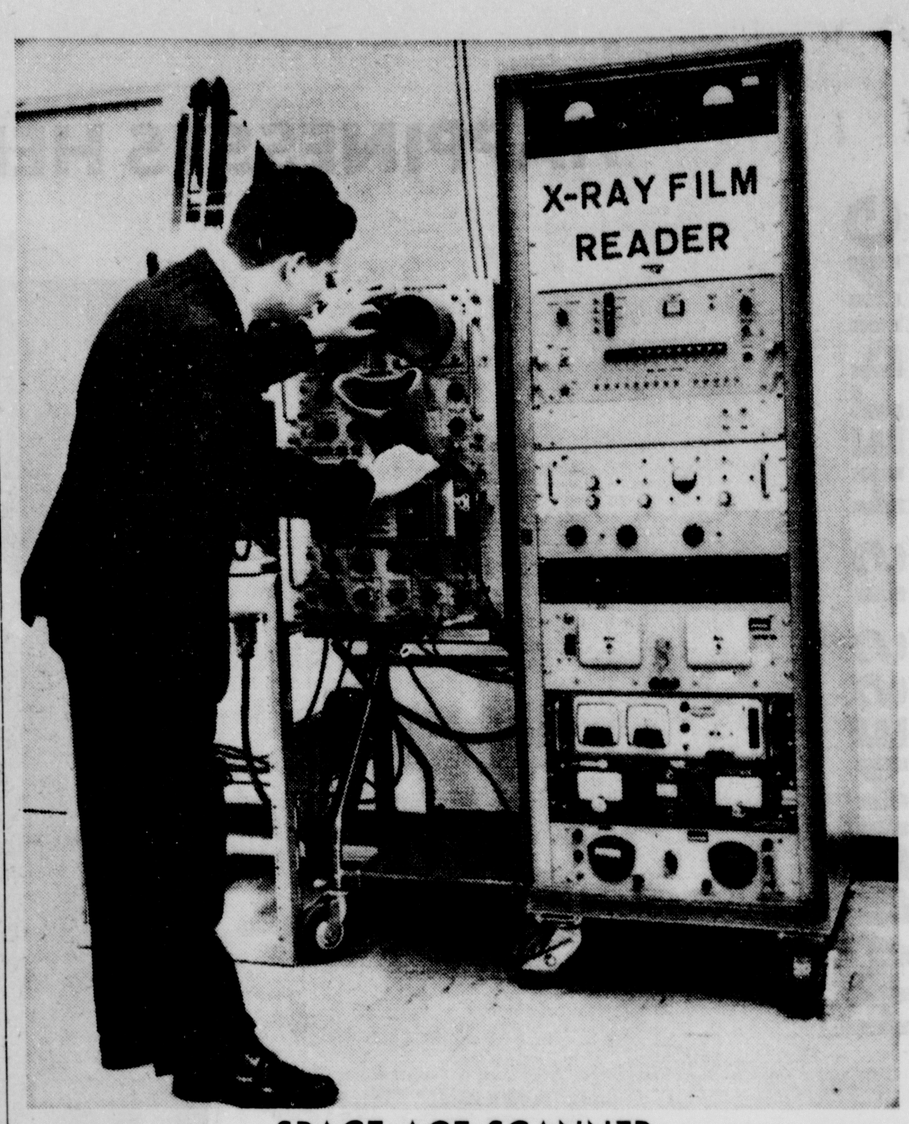
The suit also asked for a court order directing Continental to divest itself of Douglas, and Gulf to get rid of Wilshire. The action charged that acquisition of the smaller companies by Continental and Gulf violated the anti-merger provisions of the Clayton Antitrust Act.

The five defendants were accused of engaging in a conspiracy to eliminate competition among themselves and restrict competition from independent refiners in the California petroleum industry.

The complaint also charges that Shell, Douglas and Wilshire engaged in a two-price system in violation of the Robinson-Patman Act. The suit said they sold gas at higher prices in areas where they had no substantial competition from independents while selling below cost in areas there they faced stiff independent competition.

The lower prices, the complaint said, were charged in the Los Angeles area, San Joaquin Valley, Kern County and the East Bay.

The complaint also charged that the defendants engaged in sustained and severe price wars to "deplete the resources of independents and to eliminate the traditional two - cent spread."



SPACE AGE SCANNER

Apartment Drop Curbs Building

A drop of 56.3 per cent in the value of apartment construction authorized in Marin County last year caused a 3.5 per cent decline in total building permits compared with 1963, according to figures released yesterday by the Marin County Development Assn.

The drop in apartment building was almost offset by increases in permits for commercial and public buildings.

Building permits were issued last year for projects valued at $88,880,600, the association said. The 1963 figure was $93,080,300.

The association said the drop in apartment permits from $28,196,100 to $12,338,100 was probably an "automatic correction" from the predominance of apartment construction in 1962-63, which resulted in a "generally unsatisfactory" vacancy rate.

Commercial construction permits, at $11,477,800, rose 35.7 per cent over 1963. New contracts for public buildings more than doubled 1963, with $7,023,300 worth of permits being issued.

Permits were issued for 35 fewer single family homes, but their value was $47,107,400, an increase of 5.4 per cent over 1963. The average value of new apartments dropped slightly.

Total value of dwellings authorized was 29 per cent below 1963.

For most of last year, the association said, the monthly totals for all construction were very close. But only $5,468,518 in permits were issued last month compared with $10,175,665 in December, 1963, when apartment projects valued at $5,089,300 were authorized in Corte Madera.

San Rafael led the county in value in permits issued with $24,083,200, but this was down from the 1963 total of $26,052,900.

Second to San Rafael was the Novato area, which jumped almost two million dollars from 1963 for a total of $22,153,100.

Mill Valley ran third with $7,610,400 in permits issued, and Corte Madera was fourth with $5,078,400, a drop of $1,840,300 from 1963.

Value of permits issued in Belvedere was $1,666,200; in Fairfax, $1,055,900; Larkspur (including part of Greenbrae), $2,684,200; Mill Valley, $2,533,700; Ross, $486,400; San Anselmo, $2,087,500; Sausalito, $1,150,200; Tiburon (since its incorporation in June), $1,971,800; Kentfield-Greenbrae, $3,606,100; Marinwood and Lucas Valley, $2,049,900; unincorporated areas around Mill Valley, $5,056,700; Santa Venetia-Gallinas, $474,200; Terra Linda-Los Ranchitos (not counting that part of Terra Linda in San Rafael) $1,119,100; Tiburon peninsula (not counting Tiburon since its incorporation), $4,633,500; West Marin, $2,305,400; other unincorporated areas, $4,685,100.

Trustees Seek Finance Base In Lagunitas

If continuation of the Lagunitas School District's general fund tax rate limit of $2.65 per $100 assessed valuation is approved at a March 9 election, it will provide a financial base for planning.

This is the argument for passage filed with the Marin County schools by the Lagunitas School District board.

No argument against the proposition was filed at the school's office.

The $2.65 rate limit was approved by the voters last year for — one year. Failure to renew it would mean the operating tax rate would revert to 90 cents and it would be impossible to operate a satisfactory school program on that rate, the trustees claim.

The board also said it appears the $2.65 rate will be suffient to operate the school for the current year. "However, there is no guarantee that this tax rate will continue indefinitely to be adequate. If the district's assessed valuation does not keep pace with increased costs of operation, additional funds may be required in the future."

Over-ride taxes and debt payments are in addition to the general operating tax rate. This year these totaled 59 cents in the Lagunitas district, making the district's total tax levy $3.34 per $100 assessed valuation.

Two Tree Trimmers Held In Kidnaping

Two San Rafael tree trimmers were in Alameda County Jail today on charges of kidnapping a 55-year-old Newark construction worker, robbing him of $63 and leaving him locked in the trunk of his car.

Donald Sorkin, 30, and John Russell Andress, 26, both of 34 Grove Street, San Rafael, were arrested by Newark Police Wednesday following a week of investigation.

Sgt. B. E. Beard of Newark police said the two men are suspected of following James Carter, 55, out of a Newark bar Jan. 13, forcing him into his car with a .45 caliber automatic and robbing him of his cash.

Carter was locked in the trunk of his car at 9:30 p.m. and was not discovered until 1:30 a.m. the next day when railroad workers nearby heard him banging inside the trunk. Carter was cold but uninjured.

Beard said the arrest came after talking to several bar patrons, finally finding one who identified the two suspects.

Sorkin and Andress have lived in Marin less than two weeks. They were working for a tree trimming company in San Anselmo. Beard said the men also have an apartment in Belmont.

The sargeant said the gun involved in the case has not yet been located. The San Rafael apartment was searched yesterday but no gun was found.

Auto's Gas Lines Stolen

William Joseph Flynn of 227 Belle Avenue, San Rafael, was unable to start his car after work at Safeway Stores, 701 B Street, yesterday.

He called a garage and mechanics called police. Someone had taken the carburetor and gas lines from the auto.

Johnathon Henry Holland of 131 Reservoir Road, San Rafael, told police yesterday that someone had taken a 12-volt battery valued at $20 from his truck at his home Wednesday night.

Police also reported that a thief removed a case of imported beer valued at $5.55 from the Betta Beverage Co.'s warehouse at 715 Francisco Boulevard Wednesday night.

Lutherans Host Unity Octave

San Rafael's Christian Unity Octave observance will draw Protestant and Catholic worshippers tonight to Trinity Lutheran Church, where Rev. Fred C. Braunschweiger will preach the last of four sermons on the Apostle's Creed, "I Believe in Life Everlasting," at 8 p.m.

Last night's portion of the week-long ecumenical observance saw a large audience in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, where Rev. John D. Riley preached on "I Believe in the Resurrection of the Body."

A public Christian hymn festival will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Angelico Hall of Dominican College, with leading Protestant church musicians directing singing of songs of worship. The Unity Octave will close Sunday evening with private neighborhood Christian dialogue meetings in 30 San Rafael homes.

St. Raphael's Catholic, St. Paul's Episcopalian, First Presbyterian, First Methodist and Trinity Lutheran churches of San Rafael are participating in the Unity Octave.

Boys Questioned In Money Theft

One of three boys from Davidson Junior High School evidently dropped a letter of suspension in Lafarge French Laundry and Dry Cleaners Inc., 1110 Third Street, San Rafael, yesterday afternoon.

Workers at the laundry told police that the boys asked "silly questions" and then left. Soon after they were gone, it was noticed that a March of Dimes canister, containing from 40 to 50 cents, was also gone.

Police, put on the trail by the tell-tale letter, were questioning the boys today.

Recovering From Seconal Over-Dose

Kaye Ellen Compton, 30, of 30 Golden Hind Boulevard, San Rafael, was in good condition at Marin General Hospital today, recovering from an over-dose of seconal.

Mrs. Compton was rushed to the hospital in critical condition yesterday morning.

No Session

The meeting of the Marinwood Community Services District board scheduled for last night was postponed for lack of a quorum, Mrs. Genevieve Bolding, district secretary, reported. The board will meet next Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Marinwood Community Center.

Planner Says Life Still In Downtown Larkspur

City Planner John David Erickson feels there is still life in the old downtown area of Larkspur, but the area badly needs a focus—a square or park or some other center of interest.

Erickson, hired by Larkspur to produce a general plan for the city, has already started work by trying to get representatives of groups in the city to name basic goals.

He talked with businessmen in the old downtown area for a special project of a detailed plan for that area. The area need not become economically depressed, in spite of strong competition from new shopping centers, he contends, but parking and relief from congestion will have to be assured.

The construction of a new through road along the Northwestern Pacific Railroad right of way, bypassing Magnolia Avenue, the main street, should help, he asserted.

As has been true with similar planning studies elsewhere in Marin County, the federal government is picking up most of the tab. Much of the city contribution will be in staff services rather than cash. Total cost will be about $10,000.

In a preliminary study several months ago, Erickson found much of the undeveloped land in and near Larkspur was controlled by three persons, or the companies they influence. These are Niels Schultz, George C. Goheen and Adolph A. Tiscornia.

A fourth big owner is the general public. Public land ownership will increase by development of flood control works on Corte Madera Creek.

Erickson said the large landowners will certainly be brought into the discussion, before any precise planning is done for the area.

The city has a year to complete the contract under the federal grant. Erickson said he would like to speed it up to eight or nine months.

Once some agreement on goals has been found, Erickson will prepare a "sketch plan" which can be used as a frame of reference for further discussions. At the same time, the technical job of counting houses and projecting populations will be well under way.

Boy Is Injured In Cycle Mishap

Alixis M. Sill, 15, of 11 Birch Avenue, Corte Madera, was treated at Marin General Hospital for a skinned right knee yesterday after his motorcycle skidded into the side of a car driven by Robert L. McCarty, 17, of 68 Madrone Avenue, Larkspur, at Taylor Lane and Alexander Avenue, Larkspur.

Young Sill landed on the hood of the auto in the mishap at 3:40 p.m. He was headed east on Alexander Avenue when the northbound McCarty car made a left turn into the intersection in front of him, according to police.

The McCarty youth said his vision was obstructed by a car parked at the intersection.

Thieves Strike On Moored Boats

Thieves struck boats moored in San Rafael Yacht Harbor sometime since Sunday, San Rafael police reported today.

Thomas Lloyd Jones said a pair of binoculars was taken from his boat, Charles Grant Bostwick said three fire extinguishers were taken from his boat and Matthew Andrew Casey reported that his boat had been ransacked.

THREE GAMES TONIGHT IN MARIN BASKETBALL

Marin Athletic League's basketball wars get underway again tonight with three games spread through the county.

Drake (3-0) is at Novato (2-2), Redwood (2-1) is at San Rafael (2-1) and Tamalpais (1-2) is at Marin Catholic (1-3) in Kentfield. The three varsity games will start about 8:15 p.m., following the Class B prelims at 7 o'clock.

Terra Linda, drawing the night's league bye, traveled to Pacifica to take on Oceana High School today.

College of Marin is idle this weekend for final exams but the Tars return to action next Friday against College of Siskiyous. Marin has won its last 14 games and is 16-2 on the season.

It's Official! Y. A. Hangs' Em Up

NEW YORK (AP) — Y. A. Tittle, veteran quarterback of the New York Giants, officially announced his retirement from National Football League competition today.

The Giants' said they will retain Tittle for public relations work and other special assignments around the country. He will not do any coaching.

Tittle pointed out that he had played pro football for 17 years, "and I think that's enough.

"I don't want to be a mediocre player and my business and my family both have been neglected.

Tittle had made his decision known to Kyle Rote, a former backfield mate on the Giants and now sports director of radio station WNEW, several hours before the official announcement.

"Personally, I have a fear of becoming a mediocre football player," the 38-year-old star said in explanation, "perhaps I already am a mediocre player.

"Not only did Gary Wood put me on the bench," continued Tittle, and then with a grin, "but last fall he even asked permission to date my daughter. When that happens, I think it is time to quit playing football."

Tittle, known as the Bald Eagle, joined the Giants in 1961, after the San Francisco 49ers had decided that his usefulness as a starting quarterback was over.

The 49ers had switched to a shotgun formation and felt Tittle was too old to fit into their future plans.

Tittle promptly led the Giants to the first of three straight Eastern Division titles. He played behind another veteran, Charley Conerly, for the first half of the season.

Then he took over the passing chores fulltime. There was some resentment among the veterans on the club because of Conerly's popularity with his teammates.

But Tittle proved a natural and soon was the unquestioned leader of the club.

In 1962 Tittle threw 33 touchdown passes for a National Football League record. He broke the record with 36 in 1963.

At the end, Tittle had his own page in the NFL record book. He had gained more yardage and completed more passes than any other quarterback.

However, 1964 was a disaster for the once-peerless passer. He was last in the league in every throwing department, as the rest of the team collapsed, too.

Tittle, a $70,000-a-year man with extensive outside income from personal appearances and similar promotions, heard some boos for the first time.

During the championship years, Tittle and his wife were celebrities in the Big Town, where the Giants sell out all 62,000 seats in Yankee Stadium for every home game long before the season starts.

"Thanks for the three straight, Y.A."

Tittle, whose full name is Yelberton Abraham, is a Texan who went to college at Louisiana State.

In the 1947 game with Mississippi — Conerly was the opposing quarterback — Tittle intercepted a pass and was off for a touchdown until his football pants fell down and tripped him. Mississippi won 20-18.

Tittle joined the Baltimore Colts of the All-America Conference for the 1948 season and was an immediate star. He went with the Colts into the NFL in 1950 when the other league folded.

The next year the 49ers got him when the Baltimore franchise disbanded. The current Colts have different parentage.

RAGAN AND FORD SHARE THE DRIVER'S SEAT

By HAL WOOD

PEBBLE BEACH (UPI) — A second-hand putter purchased in a pawn shop, and a new "will to win" propelled handsome Dave Ragan and the veteran Doug Ford into the lead today in the $84,500 Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur golf tournament.

Ragan, who hasn't won a tournament since 1962 and who was 68th on the money winning list last year; and Ford, a 42-year-old campaigner who was 77th, each fired a 66 in the first round of the celebrity-loaded event.

As the second round got under way today, that put them six shots ahead of Jack Nicklaus; seven in front of Masters champion Arnold Palmer; three ahead of PGA king Bobby Nichols and five ahead of British Open champion Tony Lema.

And believe it or not, fifteen (15) shots ahead of National Open champion Ken Venturi, who had a dreadful 81.

Ragan, who hasn't won a nickel on the $3 million tour this year, was given an old, hickory-shafted blade putter by a PGA official, who purchased it 20 years ago in a hock shop, after he three-putted 11 greens and finished two shots out of the money in the San Diego Open last week.

"It worked out so well," he said, "that I think I'll use it again today."

Ford, who won only $8,063 on the tour last year despite the fact he is one of the all-time money-winning greats on the tour with $341,160 to his credit, credited his success to a new attitude.

"I just have a new will to win," he said, after birdieing four holes in a row at the shore course of the Monterey Peninsula Country Club.

Don January, who hasn't won a tournament since 1962, was in third place with a 67; followed by the former National Amateur, Skee Riegel, who never has been a winner as a pro, with a 68.

The 69s included Nichols, Doug Sanders, Al Besselink, Babe Hiskey, Al Gieberger, Bill Collins and Harold (Catfish) Kneece.

In the Pro Amateur division Venturi got possibly the greatest assist of all time. Jim Lange, a San Francisco disc jockey who got into the tournament by running a radio campaign, helped Venturi an unbelievable 20 shots. Lange, an 11-handicapper, brought Venturi in with a best-ball of 61 — which tied for the lead in that division. With the help of the strokes, Venturi and Lange had 11 threes on their card.

That tied them with Sanders and Lloyd Pitzer of Hollywood, a combination that won this tournament in 1963.

ALLSTAR BOWLING

Weber Zeroes In On His 3rd Title

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Dick Weber of St. Louis may be zeroing in on his third title in the $100,000 All-Star Bowling Tournament.

The gaunt little man, who won the 1962 and 1963 championships, took a 352-pin lead yesterday in the American Division of the two-section event. Ray Bluth, Weber's old teammate and doubles partner, was in second place.

Bluth, bowling's perennial runner-up, had knocked down only 102 less pins than Weber, but won only 12 games as compared to Weber's 17 victories.

Under the tournament's bonus pin format, a bowler gets 50 extra pins every time he wins a game.

Ted Hoffman Jr., a stocky youngster from Plymouth Meeting, Pa., leads the National Division with a 15-9 record. Jim St. John, current World's Invitational champion from Santa Clara, Calif., is only 14 pins off the pace.

Yesterday, for the first time, bowlers in the National Division crossed over to compete in the American Division.

Weber had one of his most satisfying victories in the interdivisional matches when he took two straight games from Harry Smith of Boston with a 248-249 series. Smith shot 212-235 in defeat.

FINALS ON TV

Winners of the various divisions will clash Sunday in a nationally telecast three-game match for the $15,000 men's title.

The $5,000 women's championship will go to the winner of a roll-off between women's division leaders.

Jean Winsch, an ex-softball pitcher from South Bend, Ind., leads the women's American Division with a 12-8 record and an average of more than 200. Mrs. Winsch is 82 pins ahead of Mary Louise Young, an attractive blonde from Houston.

Mrs. Winsch fired the best women's series of the day, 243-252, to swamp Irene Monterosso of Flushing, N.Y., in the 10th round.

Ann Slettery of Salt Lake City took command of the National Division late last night when she swept her two-game match against Sandy Hooper of Anaheim, Calif., with a 202-218 series.

YALE'S PONT IS NEW INDIANA GRID COACH

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—John Pont, Yale football coach, was named head coach at Indiana University today.

He succeeds Phil Dickens who resigned last month after seven years as Indiana coach.

Pont coached two seasons at Yale, where his teams had a 1-5-1 record. Previously, he was head coach at Miami of Ohio for seven years, compiling a 43-2-record.

Former Denver Coach Signs With Vikings

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) —The Minnesota Vikings of the National Football League announced today they have hired Jack Faulkner, former head coach of Denver in the American Football League, as defensive backfield coach.

Faulkner replaces Harry Gilmer, who left the Vikings to become head coach of the Detroit Lions of the NFL.

Gilmer has been in over-all charge of the Vikings defense and this responsibility now will be turned over to Marion Campbell, defensive line coach, said Coach Norm Van Brocklin.

Before becoming coach at Denver, Faulkner was an assistant to Sid Gillman at the University of Cincinnati and then with the Los Angeles Rams and San Diego Chargers.

In his first year as head coach at Denver, 1962, Faulkner was named the AFL coach of the Year. Denver's fortunes went down after that and Faulkner was released from his contract after the fourth game of the 1964 season.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

BARCELONA, Spain — Miguel Munoz, Spain, stopped Napoleon Gomez da Silva, Brazil, 6, welterweights.

MIAMI, Fla. — Harry Tellow, 170, Miami Beach, outpointed Scatterhawk Dixon, 166, Miami, 8.

No Manager's Job For Ted Williams

BOSTON (AP) — Ted Williams never was one to let rival pitchers know his hitting secrets. But the truth is out why he wants no part of major league managing.

The ex-Boston Red Sox slugger, who becomes eligible for the Hall of Fame balloting in 1966, tipped his hand while praising the know-how of new Sox skipper Billy Herman.

In the midst of fishing and hunting talk at a New England Sportsman's Show preview, Williams allowed the press to turn his thoughts to baseball. Some fans have long wondered why Ted didn't give managing a whirl.

He indicated he thought managing jobs too unstable and not necessarily related to a man's baseball ability.

"I think Herman will be a fine manager and I speak only of his baseball ability which I respect highly," Williams said. "It's very difficult to prejudge any manager and even to post-judge them.

"In my experience I've seen managers replaced because they were too tough, because they were too easy and for any number of reasons.

"Sometimes a manager is hired or fired according to the temperaments and abilities of his ball players.

Williams turned to the general structure of the game today:

"Baseball is going through a phase which started three years ago.

"The baseball draft will be good. A game as great as baseball has got to survive all difficulties.

"Two things that will help to overcome the difficulties are personnel and competition.

"You can't have a major imbalance between first and 10th places in a league. Only personnel can draw those positions closer and make competition better. I think a thing like this new draft proposal will be a big step in effecting that balance. I don't see how it can hurt."

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN

Tailor-Made Assist For Marin's Jim Lange In Crosby Tourney

One doesn't have to dig too deep in the Crosby golf clambake to uncover a couple of tasty morsels for Marin County appetites.

In fact, yesterday's opening round produced two big "local angles" in the amateur field that all but stole the headlines from the name pros vying for the $84,500 prize money.

Big Jim Lange of Lucas Valley, the disc jockey and announcer for Tennessee Ernie Ford's network TV show, provided the greatest fireworks among the simon pure ranks. Although his partner, National Open champion Kenny Venturi, was playing like a weekend hacker for a first round 81, Lange made the greatest assist in the history of the clambake by helping his pro pal by 20 strokes for a best ball team effort of 61. That put them in a tie for the pro-am division lead with pro Doug Sanders and amateur Lloyd Pitzer.

Lange is an 11-handicapper and must have been practicing like crazy at his home course, the Marin club, to come up with yesterday's fantastic effort.

There is another reason for Lange's phenomenal success. He was wearing specially tailored britches with double seams up the part that protects his posterior. Such reinforcement is quite necessary for Lange because he has a history of pants problems. In the Marin Tournament of Stars last September Big Jim leaned over to pick up a ball and—R-I-I-P! His game went to pot; not to mention his composure. They don't call him Mr. "SHOW" Biz for nothing.

So, for the Crosby tourney old buddy Jim double-stitched his fancy britches and the new-gained confidence showed up in his athletic performance.

The other big "local angle" in yesterday's opening round was provided by young Paul Spengler Jr., former Meadow Club junior champion now living in Hawaii, where he's in the liquor business.

Paul scored an eagle two on the 418-yard first hole at Cypress, holding a four-iron shot from a rain-soaked fairway. It was described as "the best shot of the day" and is considered by many as better than a hole in one because it was made from a fairway lie over an unmeasured distance.

The shot helped Paul and his pro partner, Aussie Bruce Crampton, to a best ball of 65, four pops behind the pace.

Father Leonard Scannell of Hamilton Field and his partner, Jack Rule, best-balled a 66; Tiburon's Ernie Nevers, the ex-grid great, and pro Labron Harris had a 74 and still another Marin amateur, printer Art Dettner Jr., and pro Ed Justa, utrned in a far-off-the-pace 77 best ball.

Pro Bob Moore, formerly of the Meadow Club, had a first round 75 in the individual pro race.

I SEE WHERE Tony Lema has been faithfully reading his illustrated golf lessons in the I-J. Champagne Tony is right in contention after the first round, so you duffers should pay heed to his golf tips which appear on these pages every Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

HOME COURT advantage held true to form in Marin high school varsity basketball Tuesday as all the home teams won—San Rafael over Marin Catholic, Redwood over Novato, Drake over Terra Linda and Tamalpais over Petaluma. There's no place like home.

WALT SILVA of the San Rafael Padres team, who bowled an embarrassing 131 game in the Western Pro Bowling League Sunday, can take heart. Harry Smith, one of the country's better pin-smashers, rolled lines of 164 and 159 in the first round of the Bowling Proprietors Assn. National All-Star Tournament in Philadelphia the other day—another example that bowling is a hot and cold game and even the great ones have their bad days.

NORTHERN CAL Golf Assn. tournament schedule for 1965 lists only three sanctioned tourneys for Marin County: The Gold Putter and Silver Spoon Invitational at the Meadow Club June 11-12; the Women's Golf Assn. of Northern Calif. 54-hole medal play (21-36 handicap bracket) at the Meadow Club and Marin Golf and Country Club June 22-24-25; and the Marin Tournament of Stars at Peacock Gap Sept. 19.

Wilt Wows' Em In Philly, Helps Defeat Warriors

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain gave his new bosses everything they expected — and more.

The 7-foot-1 scoring machine returned to Philadelphia basketball after a three-year absence last night and among his accomplishments:

1. Scored 22 points.
2. Grabbed 29 rebounds.
3. Attracted the second largest NBA crowd of the season here — 6,140.

The 76ers, with a 17-1 rally in the last five minutes of the first half, defeated the San Francisco Warriors 111-102. But the victory and the score were anticlimactic. Chamberlain was the whole show.

Traded by the Warriors to the 76ers last week for three players and an undisclosed amount of cash, Chamberlain received a standing two-minute ovation from the fans when his name was announced in the starting line-up.

The giant center shuffled his feet, looked at the ceiling and finally, a rarity for him, smiled at the crowd.

"It was the warmest ovation I've ever had," he told newsmen after the game. "It made me want to go out and score 100 points. I was proud to be a Philadelphian."

Chamberlain, of course, didn't score a hundred, but he gave the 76ers a "look" that prompted San Francisco Coach Alex Hannum to warn the Boston Celtics and the rest of the NBA that trouble is brewing in Philadelphia.

"The rest of the league better watch out," said Hannum. "It's only a matter of time until Wilt gets used to those fast guards and then it will be good to see someone else besides Boston winning all the time."

Chamberlain gave the 76ers a new dimension — superior rebounding. It prompted veteran Dave Gambee to warn:

"We can become another Boston, if we get our fast break going, Wilt off to (Larry) Costello and (Hal) Greer. He's opened up new avenues for those two to get moving. They can pop from outside, too. We won't always have to work in."

Gambee's words were evident on the court. Chamberlain was far off his 38.9 point average, but he didn't have to score. He grabbed the ball, gave it to Costello, Greer and Co., and they helped score. Greer hit for 28, Costello 14, and rookie Lucious Jackson, the U.S. Olympic ace, bagged 18.

Chamberlain, who also blocked 11 shots as the Warriors dropped their 14th straight game, experienced another luxury for him — rest. Coach Dolph Schayes gave him a four-minute respite in the first half.

"I intend to take Wilt out periodically," said Schayes. "I want him to take a look at the game. And I've got to get other good men in. I can't neglect a good man by letting him rust on the bench."

Chamberlain said he had no objection to sitting down. "Whatever the coach thinks that is what we do," he said.

Floyd Vs. Clay: A Genuine Grudge

Heavies Nearly Come To Blows

By JOE REICHLER

MARLBORO, N.Y. (AP) — An honest-to-goodness world heavyweight grudge fight between Cassius Clay and Floyd Patterson appears to be in the making should the former titleholder hurdle past George Chuvalo Feb. 1.

There's no doubt about it. Clay and Patterson do not like each other.

This became evident yesterday when Clay visited Patterson's camp in a promotional stunt to help ballyhoo the 12-round bout between Floyd and the Toronto heavyweight at Madison Square Garden in New York.

It began as an act, at least on Clay's part, with Cassius presenting two heads of lettuce and a half dozen carrots to Patterson, whom he calls The Rabbit.

Floyd accepted them smilingly and listened bemused as Clay promised him a shot at his title and a chance to "regain his pride and prestige" if he defeated Chuvalo.

So far so good. The two shook hands and Patterson climbed into the ring for his workout.

Sixty seconds later the place was in an uproar with Clay shouting insults at Patterson and tight-lipped Floyd accepting his challenge to slug it out right then and there.

Clay grew angry when Patterson, asked his reactions to Clay's continuous reference to him as The Rabbit, replied:

"Talk, you can get anywhere. It's when you touch me that I get bothered. Despite the lettuce and carrots, I'm very happy that Mr. Clay took the time to...."

He got no further. Clay, listening from the other side of the ring, yelled: "Hold it, hold it, man. What's my name? What did you call me, Rabbit? My name is Muhammad Ali. And you'd better call me that. You hear, Rabbit?"

Patterson, speaking softly but deliberately, said: "I'll call him by the name he was born with."

This seemed to inflame Clay who prefers his adopted name. He grabbed the ropes and screamed:

"Rou are nothing but an Uncle Tom Negro. You're a white man's slave. I'm a free man. I'm nobody's slave. But you're a slave and a scared rabbit...."

It was then that Clay challenged Patterson. "You apologize," he screamed. "Or else I'll come at you right now. I'll jump you this minute...."

Patterson took two steps toward Clay, banged his gloves together, and shouted back: "C'mon, let's do it now. I'm ready."

Clay ducked his head between the strands, but held by several persons. Patterson, obviously shaken by this sudden turn of events, left the ring from the other side.

"Come back, you quitter, come back you rabbit," Clay exhorted. "Don't worry about me. I won't bother you yet. I knew you'd be scared to work out.

"You done quit twice already to Sonny Liston. Don't quit a third time. Come on back. Go to work. I promise I won't bother you."

Whether it was the taunts or Patterson's wish not to disappoint the large gallery, Patterson returned without a word and boxed one round each against two sparmates.

STEVENS

To my way of thinking, there are still plenty of striped bass looking for a hunk of sardine, or a tempting bullhead. This week Carl Bennett of the Rodeo Marina called to report that two lads, Mits Ikeda and Jim Ushijima, using bullheads for bait, caught a limit each, weighing from 12 to 19 pounds on Monday. Jim Allen, fishing from the party-boat, "2 Dares," had his limit on Monday with one of the bass weighing 26 pounds, and Henry Blair, skipper of an un-named party boat, came back to port with nine bass for the four rods, to 22 pounds.

BENNETT ALSO reported an average of over two fish per rod, three small but legal sturgeons, and clearing water that was like a mill pond on Tuesday.

A letter, following a phone call from Dick Argento, who operates the Canal Yacht Service in San Rafael, called attention that he has a "very good launching ramp which is free to the public. Large boats can be docked in order to get bait, tackle or fishing information. We maintain a complete boat shop, engine repairs, woodworking and refinishing. We have just put in a complete line of fishing tackle and carry fresh bait."

DICK TOLD of having contact with conditions on the Russian and Gualala rivers, and can furnish reports of fishing in the San Pablo Bay. "Just call me for information any time between 6 a.m. and 9 p.m.," says Dick.

A postscript reads: "My partner is John Grupe who has been fishing these waters for many years. Today, John and a customer went out from here; fished off China Camp and landed three nice bass and one sturgeon weighing 41½ pounds."

SAY . . . ANY of you folks have or intend to get a hunting dog? If so you may be interested in a recent letter I received from the well known trainer of dogs, Bill Boatman of Bainridge, Ohio. He says: "You can sum up a good dog training program in four key words. First . . . Patience. The trainer who loses his temper only confuses the dog at best, and at the worst may cause the dog to cringe and cower every time the trainer comes near. Second . . . Praise. When your dog responds properly, tell him so. This can strengthen the dog's desire to please his trainer. Third . . . Consistency. Always give the same command in the same tone of voice and in the same manner. Fourth . . . The final key to successful training of a dog is Firmness. Insist that your dog do exactly as ordered, and that he do it in the same way every time an order is given."

So that's it for today. Chow!

THOMAS RETIRES, WELL, SORT OF..

BOSTON (AP) — High jumper John Thomas' retirement from track apparently is only temporary. At least he hopes so.

"The story about my retirement from high jumping is accurate," the two-time Olympic medal winner said yesterday. "But I'm not retiring for keeps. I'm optimistic about returning for the big outdoor meets this summer."

Thomas said he was quitting last Saturday after the Boston K of C track meet at which he was a high jump judge. He was recovering from a hernia operation, had quit a sales job by mutual agreement and was concerned about his future.

But John denies he was down and out.

"At the time I wanted to retire," Thomas says. "After losing my job I was more concerned about my future livelihood than anything else.

"Now I want to get my roots established, find a job that'll be my future. I won't think about high jumping until I do.

"But once I do and am earning enough money, I'll return to competition, and I hope it'll be soon. In the meantime, I'll train on my own, mostly running to keep in condition.

"I'm definitely not down and out and I'm not dejected. I've had many worse setbacks in my life than this."

Thomas wanted it understood — contrary to one story — that he wasn't forced to retire because the American system does not subsidize amateur athletes.

"It would be great if they did subsidize us," Thomas said. "But plenty of top-level athletes work and compete, too, and I can do the same."

Mill Valley Cagers Win In San Rafael

The Mill Valley Boys Club downed the Scramblers 61-55 Wednesday in Class B-2 action of the San Rafael Recreation Department Adult Baseball League. In the other scheduled game, the Probation Department won by forfeit over Gonzales.

Garibaldi, Two Other Giants Hurlers Sign

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— Bob Garibaldi, 22, highest paid bonus player in San Francisco Giant history at $150,000, signed his 1965 contract and became one of three young pitchers in the fold for the approaching season.

The Giants also announced yesterday that southpaw Al Stanek, 21, and Frank Linzy, 24-year-old right-hander, signed for 1965.

Stanek got about $55,000 three years ago. Linzy came to the Giant organization in 1960 for relatively little money. All three pitchers were assigned last season to Tacoma, the Giants' Pacific Coast League farm club.

Garibaldi's right arm troubles began early last season when he experimented with an unnatural delivery. He was sent home after struggling to a 1-2 record at Tacoma. No surgery was required—just rest for what was diagnosed as a displaced tendon.

Stanek, from Chicopee, Mass., was the 1964 PCL strikeout king with 220 in 223 innings, posting a 13-12 record and a 2.83 earned run average. He sat out the 1963 season because of the bonus rule.

Linzy, from Coweta, Okal., was 11-12 and allowed 193 hits in 198 innings. His ERA was 2.91.

The Giants now have announced five signings — Willie Mays was first. Pitcher Jack Sanford followed earlier this week.

Mrs. Hal Cooley Sinks Hole-In-One At Meadow Club

Mrs. Hal Cooley of Sausalito scored a hole-in-one yesterday during guest day golf tourney action at the Meadow Club in Fairfax.

She scored the ace on the 133-yard 11th hole, using a four-iron. Mrs. Cooley finished the round with 117. Mrs. William May of Indian Valley Golf Club scored a 90 to win low gross honors.

Other winners were:

Class A—Mrs. Roy Sayles, 93-14—81; Mrs. H. C. Billings, 100-19—81; Mrs. Ray Luce, 102-21—81; Mrs. Harry Hensler, 95-13—82.

That Used Car Was Pretty Rough

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Your friends and mine, the local automobile dealers who advertise on television, are pretty persuasive fellows. If you have ever had any experience with buying a used car, you know that their video siren calls are not always as alluring on the auto lot as they are on the home screens.

And yet, when you are in the market for a car, and you see what appears to be an unusually good deal on television, you may think, "well, maybe this time ... maybe ... just maybe this once ..."

This past Saturday evening, I decided to pursue such a deal. I kept telling myself I should know better, but then I thought about how so many of our important minds keep telling us that we must remain vulnerable to an extent, at all costs, if we are to maintain a humane attitude and preserve our sanity as individuals. I decided to cast another hesitant vote ofr humanity, and sanity too.

On one of our night-time television movies here I had watched [illegible] which a deluxe [illegible] offer[illegible] a

It's a school for you . . . for anyone . . . who contemplates buying, or selling, an automobile, now or anytime in the future. It's a service Ames Ford has long felt was needed . . . a public education session on the intricacies of automobile sales transactions. We're not out to make a sales pitch, the Ames Ford WAB* School is strictly for your information, for your education. It will be conducted by executive personnel and experienced staff salesmen with a long reputation of integrity in Marin County.

The need to counteract the loud wailing of the electronic pitch-men is an ever increasing chore on the part of every reputable automobile dealer. We hope to do our part with the formation of this school. You are under no obligation. Just come in, sit down, listen to the instructors, ask questions—whatever you like. LIKES CHARADES

That Socializing Adlai Stevenson

By FREDERICK M. WINSHIP

NEW YORK (UPI) — Who is it that:

Used to squire beautiful Joan Fontaine to such spots as the Plaza Hotel's Persian Room—until she got married to a sports editor.

Shows up at almost every first night on Broadway. Is the most eligible man in the jet set-egg head group, one of whom refers to him as "that cat with nine lives."

Gets a big charge out of Lauren Bacall. Went on a Mediterranean party that included Ave Gardner. Toasted Jean Kerr at Sardi's after the opening of her play, "Poor Richard."

Received invitations to six diplomatic receptions on one evening. Carries a black bow tie in the pocket of a black business suit for instant change into "evening clothes."

Escorted Mrs. John F. Kennedy, who was dressed in a short black evening gown with one shoulder bare, to a concert at the United Nations in one of her first social appearances since her husband's assassination.

Was the good friend and confident of the late Eleanor Roosevelt.

Twice carried the Democrat banner in running for the presidency of the United States. Faced the Russians down in the U.N. during the Cuban crisis. Is probably the most eloquent speaker in the United States.

Spends numberless hours — day and night — employing the prestige he enjoys around the world in the tough task of winning support, or at least understanding, of the foreign policies of the U.S.A.

That's right. Adlai Stevenson.

NOT LONG AGO, Stevenson's picture appeared in the newspapers showing him backstage with Robert Preston who plays the lead in "Ben Franklin in Paris."

Someone remarked that there was a great deal of Benjamin Franklin about Adlai Stevenson. Like that urbane citizen of revolutionary days, Stevenson likes to mix diplomacy with society, has an eye for a pretty face and a trim figure seeks out the company of the interesting in all walks of life.

His pace is astonishing.

"He does more than 40 men," is the way Mrs. Ronald Tree, U.S. Ambassador to the U.N. Trusteeship Council, puts it. Mrs. Tree reigns over the nearest thing to an intellectual salon in New York and Stevenson is one of its ornaments.

Another friend, Mrs. Philip L. Graham of the Washington Post family, describes him as a "collector of people" from the worlds of the theater, art, music and letters as well as politics.

AMONG THE legion of friends gathered in years of public service, only a few make up Stevenson's permanent collection. These include Mrs. Graham's mother, Mrs. Agnes Meyer; Chicago business executive Edison Dick and his wife; Mrs. Marshall Field; attorney Lloyd Garrison; publisher Cass Canfield; philanthropist Mrs. Albert Lasker, and former Sen. William Benton.

All agree that Stevenson's irrepresible gregariousness and his love of life keep him bouncing debonairly through the endless appointments that make up his day. Recently he topped a full day at the United Nations, including the security council debate on Syria and Israel, with two diplomatic cocktail parties and a formal dinner for the foreign minister of Dahomey.

That was the same night he hosted the Princeton reunion in his apartment.

STEVENSON'S right hand man, Clayton Fritchey, who directs public affairs for the U.S. Mission at the United

MOST ELIGIBLE . . .

Nations, says many of the Ambassador's social engagements are really an extension of his U.N. duties.

"When Upper Volta gives a reception, they feel they have just as much right to expect Ambassador Stevenson as when Russia gives a party," Fritchey says.

Stevenson lives alone in his suite, its original American-Georgian decor never altered architecturally. Historic letters from Washington, Lafayette and Lincoln may be seen on various tables and cabinets. Paintings and drawings by Dufy and Picasso are on the walls.

His housekeeper, Viola Reardy, a former Illinois farm girl who worked for Stevenson's mother for many years, keeps his wardrobe in order.

"He's a quick changer," Mrs. Reardy says. "Sometimes he's in the apartment only about five minutes before he goes out again for the evening."

U. N. delegates invited to the apartment are delighted to find the Burtons there instead of the same tired diplomatic faces. Stevenson finds the actor a most entertaining guest and admires his rags-to-riches career built solely on creative talent.

STEVENSON gives one or two dinner parties a week—either for 14 at his formal dining table or 50 to 75 who sit at small tables and serve themselves at a buffet.

"He is the best kind of company," says film tycoon Arthur Krim, another friend. "He is the most witty, intelligent and delightful person to be with. He has many film and theatrical friends and they adore him."

Although very much an intellectual, Stevenson is not above "small talk" when it has its place.

"Wherever he sits is the head of the table because of his vast horizons and interests," says Marietta Tree. "But he is an excellent listener, too."

His reading — formerly of encyclopedic proportions — is now pretty much limited to official papers. But he tries to keep up with contemporary fiction and is currently reading Saul Bellow's "Herzog."

Dinners To Precede 'Iolanthe'

By MOLLY MARIN

AMONG THE DINNER parties planned before the English Speaking Union benefit opening of "Iolanthe" on Tuesday evening in San Francisco are the Stanley Powells of San Francisco and Ross, whose guests will include Percy King and Baroness Ella von Heemstra, mother of actress Audrey Hepburn, and several other guests. The George Harts and Dewey Donnells will entertain for the James Lawrys, F. W. Peter McChesneys, Philip McCoys, Mrs. Harris Kirk, and they'll be joined by the Donnell daughters Sandra and Nancy. They'll dine at the Circle de L'Union.

JOINING THE group for the West Point Society dinner at the Presidio in San Francisco tomorrow will be Col. and Mrs. Dan Gilmer of San Rafael.

PLANNING TO make their home in Oklahoma City are Dr. and Mrs. Gail Adams and children, Kenneth and Frances of Larkspur. Dr. Adams, a radiological physicist at the University of California Center, will leave on Thursday to accept a position at the University of Oklahoma Medical Center. Mrs. Adams and Frances, a freshman at College of Marin, will join him in June. Kenneth is presently serving with the U.S. Air Force at Keesler Field in Mississippi. Mrs. Adams has been active in the Camp Fire Girls and with Job's Daughters.

MAUREEN DIAS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dias, 1895 Mar West, Tiburon, will leave for Bogota, Colombia, soon to begin her duties as a secretary in the U.S. Embassy there. Miss Dias now is in Washington, D.C., taking State Department training for her post. She is a graduate of Tamalpais High School and was graduated in 1961 from from the University of California at Berkeley, gaining a B.A. degree with honors while majoring in Spanish. Her sister Joan is Mrs. Kanan Ali and she and her husband reside in Bagdad, Iraq, where he is a chemist for the Iraqui government.

Bohan Of Dior Promises 'There Will Be A Change'

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

PARIS—Today the House of Christian Dior with its scalloped marquee and sleepy doorman presents a placid face, a striking contrast to the frenzy behind it before the spring fashion showings next week.

The outward somnolence is little comfort to a world of husbands who may not know a gusset from a Godet, but who know and fear the Dior name.

It does not matter that Marc Bohan inherited the design reins two years after Dior's death in 1957 and promised "no more revolutions — only evolutions."

To men, Dior still is synonomous with drastic, budget-wrecking style changes like the new look in 1947, the H-line in 1954, and the A and Y silhouettes in 1955.

Bohan is willing to talk about his style formulas if it will give men more peace of mind — and if his phone will stop ringing, the interoffice com-system will not buzz, and if the door will quit squeaking open, and hands will refrain from beckoning.

He looks smaller than he is behind his huge mahogany desk, and incongruous in a white butcher's jacket. His face is pinched, eyes red-rimmed.

"Oh, this week. It is too much. I was up until 3:30 with Arthur Miller and his wife. Besides my collection, I am doing the costumes for 'After the Fall' which opens in a few days."

"How can you possibly attend?" asks an aide, who has come in to present another opening day problem — how to get 1,000 press representatives in a showroom designed for 250?

"I must," says Bohan. "I have no choice."

A hand beckons, Bohan disappears and is back again.

"I was checking the coiffure for the wedding scene. It will be nice. Oh, yes, the collection."

He fiddles with a charcoal sketching pencil nervously.

"There will be a change — not a great change," he adds quickly, sensing the panic that can result from such news.

"There will be an end to the lean, straight look, a coming back of a fullness — pleats, gathers, movement. Waistlines? Oh, definitely, belts, many belts."

A pause for a phone call.

"Short, short skirts?" He smiles at the thought. "They've gone up about as far as they can go. No, I promise you, my hems will be about the same for day. For evening? All lengths, something a little different.

"Necklines. Much less decolletage. But across the shoulders dresses will be — how is that word meaning you can see through? Yes. Transparent, like chiffon. Black and long sleeves that way, too.

"Hair styles will be two ways, short and curly, with a small head, or a small chignon on a very small head. Hats will be very important, worn straight on and down the back of the head.

"My shoes will be very plain with heels a little higher and more slender than last year. Pumps for day. Open sandals for dress.

"I am using a lot of navy and white, and white by itself, and, of yes, a great deal of beige."

Ten Will Be Feted At Center Feb. 10

Ten Marin women will be honored as new members of the Sunny Hills Junior Auxiliary at a luncheon to be held on Feb. 10 at the Marin Art and Garden Center.

New members include Mesdames Robert H. Berry of Kentfield; I. Wayland Bonbright III, Ross; James Collins, Greenbrae; George A. DeUrioste, Mill Valley; Harold Engle, Ross; Paul Erickson, San Anselmo; Kenneth Fuller, Greenbrae; Dewitt K. McDonald, Greenbrae; Harold Marquis, Mill Valley, and Tracy Van Voorhees of Kent Woodlands.

Special Announcement

I have been closely identified with the San Anselmo branch of The Junior Boot Shop for the past 11 years. I recently sold my interest in that store and I now am the sole owner of The Junior Boot Shops in San Rafael and Novato. Joining me in the San Rafael store will be Glenn Conner, who has been associated with the San Anselmo store for the past two years. John Walters will be manager of our Novato store. I wish to extend a cordial invitation to friends and patrons to drop by the San Rafael store and renew acquaintances. Policies will be unchanged and we will, of course, continue to offer the same fine Edwards Shoes.

New President A Baseball Fan

Mrs. Robert R. Schultz of Sausalito will take over the duties of president of the Star of the Sea Institute No. 97, YLI, from Mrs. Leo Quadros Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Perry's Hall, Sausalito.

A member since 1954, Mrs. Schultz has held the positions of first and second vice presidents.

The organization is open to all Catholic women from the age of 16.

The new president is especially interested in the Albertium Orphanage and the Jubilee Burse, which is concerned with contributing to the education of young men who wish to become priests.

She is active in the Archdiocese Council of Catholic Women, for which she was secretary in 1962 and 1963, and has been a Girl Scout leader.

Most of all Mary Helen Schultz enjoys camping with her family. She has a coin collection and likes baseball and sewing.

A native of Trinidad, Colo., she attended St. Anselm's High School in San Anselmo.

She met her husband, who is employed in maintenance with a whaling company in Richmond, at Fort Baker when she was working in personnel there during 1943-45 and he was stationed there as a staff sergeant with the U.S. Army.

The Schultzes have six children: Karen, 17; William, 16; Robert Jr., 15; Tom, 13; Mario, 7; and Susan, 4.

Other officers serving with Mrs. Schultz will be Mesdames George Hospodar, first vice president; Anthony Medeiros, second vice president; Arthur Jewett, treasurer; Donald Morich, marshal; and Misses Mary Foli, recording secretary; Alice Van Houtte, inside sentinel and Eleanor Martinez, outside sentinel.

Mrs. Leonard Taylor is organist and trustees are Mesdames Joseph De Martini and Walter Silva and Miss Elizabeth Brennan.

STEVENSON

32. He is a grandfather but his other two sons, Adlai Jr., 33, and John Fell, 28, do not live in New York. John lives in Marin.

Stevenson and his wife were divorced in 1949. She lives in seclusion, in poor health, in Chicago.

Stevenson does not patronize the popular U.N. delegates' lounge and bar in the big building on the East River. Nor does he rove the corridors shaking hands and exchanging gossip because he does not have time. Even so, he has conferred with nearly 50 foreign ministers in his past year.

"The governor doesn't waste a minute," say Fritchey, calling him by the title which clings from Stevenson's gubernatorial years in Illinois.

He has changed considerably since those Illinois days. He was always a socialite. He came from what might be called the Illinois landed aristocracy—grandfather, also named Adlai, vice president under Cleveland; father, Lewis, Illinois secretary of state.

Stevenson has always been extremely family conscious. His wife, in post divorce exasperation said:

"They are like Confucius. They worship their ancestors."

He maintains a circle of friends among the blue blood of Lake Forest and Libertyville in Illinois. His sister, Mrs. Ernest (Buffie) Ives, visits him frequently during the year, staying with him a week or 10 days at a time. When she is here, she acts as hostess.

DIPLOMATIC DUTIES regularly call Stevenson to Washington where he is as popular as in New York.

Last April, Stevenson told his chauffeur to take him to a dinner party at the Washington home of Icelandic ambassador Thor Thors. A party was in full bloom, attended by many Washington bigwigs. After 15 minutes Adlai asked where Thors was. Stevenson found he was in the home of Coleman Jennings so he beat a hasty retreat and made the Thors' home in time for dinner.

Folk Dance Instruction To Start For Beginners

A new beginners course of folk dance instruction for adults and teen-agers, sponsored by the San Rafael Recreation Dept. and the Marin Folk Dance Council, will hold its first meeting Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. in the San Rafael American Legion Hall.

Joe Angeli of Fairfax will teach European and American folk dances that use such basic steps as polka, schottische, and laendler. The course is planned especially for those who have had no previous folk dance instruction.

Classes will be hosted by members of the sponsoring folk dance clubs of the county. These are the San Rafael Whirl-Aways, the Step-Togethers of Marin, the Novato Folk Dancers, and the Hardly Able Folk Dancers. Registration may be made at the first or second class or with the San Rafael Recreation Department.

Thetas Will Mark 95th Year

Kappa Alpha Theta is celebrating its 95th year, having been founded on Jan. 27, 1870 at DePauw University and on Wednesday the Marin Alumnae Club will hostess a founders day luncheon at Peacock Gap Country Club in San Rafael. The members of the Diablo Valley Club, the San Francisco Chapter, and the San Mateo Clubs are also invited.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Dwight Wilbur, who is Theta state chairman for northern California. Introducing her will be Mrs. Kenneth Moynihan. Honored guests will include the presidents of the attending groups, Mrs. Leonard Hedberg of Diablo, Mrs. Harry Sawyer Jr. of San Francisco, Mrs. Robert Swanson of San Mateo, and Mrs. Patrick Leader of Marin.

Novato Guild Elects Officers For Year

Sunny Hills Guild 2 in Novato has elected Mrs. James E. Cermak as president for 1965.

Mrs. Cermak comes well prepared to take over her duties, as she is immediate last president of the Women's Auxiliary to the Marin County Dental Society and served as vice president of the Sunny Hills Guild last year.

She is also a member of the Novato Branch of the American Assn. of University Women and was chairman of the Mothers March of Dimes in Novato.

Paula Cermak and her husband, a dentist in Novato, settled in Marin County 12 years ago when Dr. Cermak served a tour of duty at Hamilton Air Force Base for two years.

The Cermaks have three children, Steven 10, Jill, 7 and Todd 3 years of age.

A home economics teacher before her marriage, Mrs. Cermak was graduated from the University of Minnesota. The new president's interests include playing bridge, cooking, participating in amateur theater in the Novato Community Club and bowling with her husband. She is also taking French lessons.

The Sunny Hills Guild will begin fund raising for the Sunny Hills Home in San Anselmo on Feb. 10 with a fashion show at the Novato Community House. Several other activities are being formulated in the Novato area, plus participation in the Grape Festival.

Other officers elected to serve with Mrs. Cermak are Mesdames Richard Purdy, vice president; James Arthurs, secretary; and Robert Dougherty, treasurer. Chairmen are Mesdames Dante Mazzoni, Bargain Box; Robert Lagle, Grape Festival and James Harrington, publicity.

Amelie Donavin Bride In San Rafael Mission Rite

In Mission San Rafael Arcangel a nuptial mass was celebrated for the wedding of Amelie Joan Donavin, of Belvedere and Daniel Francis Voss, of Anderson, Ind., at noon on Dec. 26.

MRS. DANIEL VOSS

Joan is the daughter of Mrs. Arthur P. Campbell of Belvedere. Mr. Campbell escorted Joan to the altar. The bride's gown of white peau de soie, with Alencon lace bodice and sleeves, ended in a train.

Mrs. John Mercer of Fairfax was matron of honor. Two cousins of the bride, Marquerite and Amelie Smith, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Allen Smith of Kentfield, were junior bridesmaids. All wore short sky blue chiffon dresses.

Ronald Voss of Anderson was best man for his brother. The ushers were John Mercer and Charles Campbell.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Voss of Anderson. His sister, Mrs. Thomas Lauer came from Dayton, Ohio, to be present at the wedding.

Joan attended Sacred Heart Convent, Marymount in Santa Barbara Catholic High School. She is also a graduate of the Academy of Stenographic Arts. Joan was a court reporter for the municipal courts of the county of San Mateo.

Daniel attended St. Mary's High School in Anderson, and was graduated from Xavier University. He is on the General Motors financial staff.

Richard Nave To Be Speaker

Richard Nave, president of the greater Novato Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Marin County Youth Council, will be guest speaker at the Novato Business and Professional Women's Club dinner on Tuesday. His topic will be the youth of the county.

The evening's activities will begin with cocktails at 7:30 p.m. and dinner at 8 p.m. at Nero's Restaurant in Ignacio.

Ruffles 'In'

Ruffles have long been on the upswing. Now they are definitely back in their frilly best. Watch them on everything from bathing suits to evening gowns. They help soften the tailored look, for example, on the V-neck of a sleeveless white cotton organdy shell.

Day School To Have Weekend Open House

The Pacific Day School for pre-school and kindergarten children will have an open house tomorrow and Sunday from noon to 4 p.m. Situated originally in the First Baptist Church building in Mill Valley the school is now located in its own building at 40 Shell Rd., Alto, Mill Valley.

Directors Margaret Kelly (Mrs. William Kelly of Mill Valley) and Jean Raible (Mrs. Alton Raible) of San Anselmo, will be on hand to explain their educational system to parents. The school eventually will go through the sixth grade, adding a grade a year, said Mrs. Kelly.

Couple Plan July 17 Rite In Novato

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ferrera of Novato are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Linda Ann to Richard C. Mellor of Novato.

Linda was graduated from Marin Catholic High School and attended College of Marin. She is employed at the Bank of Marin in San Rafael. The bride-elect is the sister of Robert J. Ferrera of San Jose and they are the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Brown of Mill Valley.

Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mellor of Novato and the brother of Ronald and Roland Mellor. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mellor of Santa Rosa and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Esteves of Lakeport.

The future bridegroom is a graduate of Novato High School and attended College of Marin. He is employed with Lee Brothers in Marinwood.

The couple will be married at Our Lady of Loretto Church in Novato on July 17.

Knights Templar To Install

Charles M. Geller of San Anselmo will be installed as commander of Marin Commandery 73, Knights Templar, in public rites at 8 p.m. Monday in the Fairfax Masonic Temple in Larkspur.

Geller, former Building Trades Council official, is treasurer of the Marin County Heart Assn.

Henry J. Weisser of Tiburon, grand captain general of the Grand Commandery of California, will install the new officers.

Divorce Gives Woman Maiden Name, Poodle

Mary Ellen Ketjen of 38 Reed Ranch Road, Tiburon, yesterday got back her maiden name and was awarded title to her home and custody of Gigi, a French poodle.

The poodle figured in an uncontested divorce case in Marin County Superior Court.

Mrs. Ketjen, who will be known again as Mary Ellen Griffin, and her husband Harry Ketjen, an accountant, could not agree on where the dog should sleep. Mrs. Ketjen, 54, a dance instructor, wanted the dog in bed with her. Ketjen did not.

Judge Thomas F. Keating, in an interlocutory judgement, ruled that the wife could have title to the home by paying $6,000 to her husband as settlement. There was no alimony ordered, but the judge awarded custody of the poodle to Mrs. Ketjen.

Mrs. Ketjen has withdrawn a $55,000 damage suit against her husband in which she alleged that he kicked Gigi and then kicked her on April 20, 1963.

The couple were married in Lincoln, Kan., July 3, 1962.

Dean Of Boys Post Proposed

Creation of a position of dean of boys at Redwood High School has been submitted for consideration by the Tamalpais High School District Board, according to Jacki Crisp of the Redwood High student news bureau.

Paul Bosque, who has taught at Redwood for six years, has been mentioned in regard to the post to be created due to Redwood's projected enrollment of 2,000 for the 1965-66 school year, she reported.

Nicholas Gennare, head of the school's English department, reportedly has been recommended to take over Bosque's duties as dean of the summer school program and coordinator of data processing. Gennare has been on the Redwood High faculty for four years.

Kettenhofen Renamed To Academy Board

Newly elected Marin County Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen of San Anselmo yesterday was reappointed to the board of governors of the California Maritime Academy near Vallejo.

Kettenhofen served as a captain in the Merchant Marine during World War II. Gov. Edmund G. Brown announced the reappointment.

Sausalito School Calendar On List

Sausalito School District trustees will adopt a 1965-66 calendar at their meeting at 8 p.m. Monday in the district office. They will also discuss the proposed city maintenance yard at Coloma and Nevada streets, one block from Bayside School. A closed session will be held following the regular business meeting to discuss hiring a new teacher, said Supt. Marcus F. Davis.

Music, Poetry Reading Slated For Sausalito

There will be music and poetry reading at 8:30 p.m. Feb. 13 at the Sausalito Little Theater, including poetry reading by Casey Sonnedand of Sausalito and the playing of Indian Ragas on drums by Stan Rice. The event is sponsored by the theater at no admission charge.

Penny Vieregge was re-elected president of the theater board of directors Wednesday; Harold Rogers, re-elected vice president; Frances Andre, treasurer, and Mona Horwitz, secretary.

The theater is in rehearsal for "Country Girl," directed by Will Marchetti of Mill Valley, to open Feb. 19.

Farm Workers Go Domestic

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Domestic workers have replaced more than two-thirds of Japanese farm laborers imported to fill the gap opened by the end of the bracero program, State Employment Director Albert Tieburg said yesterday.

Tieburg said that of 1,186 Japanese and 83 Filipino workers under contract in the state, all but 382 now are on standby. Only in Santa Maria, Ventura and Riverside counties are Japanese nationals now working.

The Japanese workers were brought in following the Dec. 31 expiration of a law allowing use of braceros — Mexican nationals — during harvest seasons.

The law permitting use of Japanese laborers, said Tieburg, prohibits their use when domestic workers are available.

Winter Concert Set At College

The public winter concert of the College of Marin Community Orchestra will begin at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in the college gymnasium.

Conducted by John H. Myers, the 45-piece orchestra will play selections ranging from Mozart through Rimsky-Korsakov and Borodin. Admission will be free.

Mass Firing Proves To Be A Silly Move

The absurdity of asking for mass resignation of the county's appointive commissions could not have been pointed up more clearly than by what actually happened.

All those who turned in their resignations, except one who has moved out of the district, were re-hired. And three planning commissioners, who refused to resign, promptly found themselves bounced off the commission.

In other words, we have the silly situation where the supervisors go to the trouble of asking for mass resignations with specific goals in mind—to get rid of three members of the planning commission and replace them with representatives more to the liking of the new board of supervisors.

But what they got was the exact opposite of what they bargained for.

What the supervisors had hoped to achieve—avoid the "embarrassment" of asking a few individuals to resign—merely boomeranged.

Instead of being dropped from the commissions for backing a losing supervisor, the ousted commissioners have taken on the added glamor of being martyrs in the game of politics.

H. C. Hankins campaigned for former Supervisor George H. Ludy. Edward Wachsman actively backed Mayor John F. McInnis against Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker. Both Hankins and Wachsman refused to resign and were dropped from the roster.

George Scott, the third man to be dropped, also refused to resign. However, he said he considered himself off the commission and would so inform his friends in the labor movement.

When Scott joined the commission in 1955, he agreed to serve as a representative of labor. Scott is also president of Marin Building and Construction Trades Council.

His ouster means that one of Marin's largest employment categories, building and construction trades, has lost its representation on the county planning commission.

The County Planning Commission, at the time of its inception, was actively supported by labor and construction trades. It is a stroke of ingratitude to sack the only building and construction trades representative on the commission.

Despite denials by individual supervisors, the firing of the three planning commissioners raises these questions:

Is the planning commission going to be a rubber stamp of the supervisors? When a man accepts a post on the planning commission, should he leave his own opinions behind and wear those considered fashionable by the supervisors in power?

In the light of what has happened, these are legitimate questions a man might ask himself before he considers accepting a post on any of the appointive commissions in the future.

January—The Bleak Month

January is by all odds the bleakest time of the year. Everything seems soggy wet or cold and dark. After the color and splendor of Christmas, it is the month of the let-down and the bills.

But the days are getting longer and there is a hint of spring in the air. The daphne and acacia are commencing to show a little color. One day soon we will awake to find a shower of golden acacia outside our window and we will know that Marin's most spectacular season has begun.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Senate Reapportionment Might Raise Unruh Status Still More

By WAT TAKESHITA

THE PERSONAL POWER wielded by Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh stems largely from the power of the Speaker to appoint all committees and refer all bills and resolutions to the committee he wants.

TAKESHITA

In the Senate, you don't have this type of one-man domination. In the upper house, the five-man Rules Committee (of which Sen. Jack McCarthy of San Rafael is vice chairman), names members of various committees. Sole authority is not centered in Sen. Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno), president pro-tem.

Speaker Unruh has been trying to improve his public image by being a "good Joe" to both Democrats and Republicans in the Assembly.

BUT LAST WEEK, some of Unruh's authority showed through. Almost single-handedly, he put the brakes on the Senate resolution, asking for a Constitutional amendment to give states the power to apportion their senates.

When the Senate resolution got to the Assembly, Speaker Unruh said he had no committees to take up the matter until next month. Obviously, Unruh is in no hurry to stop the Supreme Court ruling for a one-man, one-vote apportionment of the Senate.

HE'S FROM Southern California, and the South stands to gain from a Senate apportionment based on population. Southern California might gain some 15 senators from a reapportionment.

Unruh, who dominates the Assembly through assemblymen who are committed to him, is probably looking ahead to the day when he might extend that influence into the Senate. An addition of 15 senators from Southern California would certainly fit into such plans.

SLEEPY HOLLOW attorney Alvin H. Goldstein Jr., who headed President Johnson's campaign in Marin, has apparently thrown his support behind Peter Allen Smith for judge of Marin Municipal Court.

If that's the case, Smith, public defender and chairman of the Marin Democratic Central Committee, appears to be a shoo-in for the vacancy on the municipal court bench. It ought to be just a matter of time now.

A THIRD PARTY movement is being considered by Fred Ullner of Larkspur, the man who heads the "26 Million Club."

"We are exploring the possibility of placing the Conservative Party on the California ballot," says Ullner. He figures that there's too much friction now within the GOP. And the formation of a Conservative Party would eliminate most of the friction.

Some Northern Californians are talking about cutting the state in half, north and south.

NANCY KING Hayden of Marin Museum Assn. points out that this idea of splitting the state is old stuff.

In 1851, a "convention to divide the state" was called in Los Angeles because southern delegates felt that state legislation was directed for the exclusive benefit of the northern mining counties.

Just as the counties south of San Luis Obispo were about to incorporate as the Territory of Colorado, the Civil War broke out to block the move.

What Ever Happened To Great Silent Vote?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

President Johnson's margin of victory in 1964 was 135 times as great as was President Kennedy's in 1960. Would one of the 26,000,000 Americans who have switched to Excedrin (since Nov. 3) please tell me what ever became of the Great Silent Vote?

Religious Art Given Praise

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I want to take this opportunity to thank you and your fine staff for your very good newspaper, I-J.

Specially, I want to thank the artist, Jack Hamm, who has the drawing in your paper every Saturday night. I look forward to it every Saturday. In this day and age, when people seem to forget God and His Word, it is refreshing to see some newspaper that still holds up the Bible, the Word of God.

May you continue to print it fearlessly and the Lord will bless you.

School Bus Speed Obviates Seat Belts

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I have just read the editor's message about the use of seat belts in school buses as of Jan. 9. Please forward me two more copies. I think one very important item was left out of your editorial. The law provides that 45 miles per hour is the speed limit for school buses. Most of the time they do not exceed 30-35 miles per hour, therefore it makes it less need for seat belts. Cars which travel from 60-70-75 miles per hour really need seat belts. But at the low rate of speed which school buses travel, seat belts are not necessary.

We started in transporting school children 52 years ago, that is, we got our first contract with the Newman Elementary School District in september, 1913. We are today transporting over 12,000 children to school a day and operate 160 buses in different parts of the state. To date we never have had an accident that involved a child in the bus. So we think you were right about it being unnecessary for seat belts in school buses. Besides, seat belts in school buses would create a lot of unnecessary confusion. I thought maybe you appreciate us having mentioned the lawful speed of school buses.

Tamarancho Story, Photos Praised

Editor, Independent-Journal:

We were delighted with the feature on Tamarancho in the Marin Magazine, Jan. 16. Please accept our thanks and our congratulations for a job well done.

The photos by Jim Kean are the best we have ever seen of Tamarancho and the article by Don Keown was excellent.

We feel that Tamarancho is the finest Boys' Camp in America and offers a variety of program features which would be hard to duplicate anywhere. For several months last year we were fortunate to have the services of Belton Murphy of Merced, who is a national expert on rustic construction and handicraft, in our camps and he has been a great influence in the development of these program features.

We are grateful to the citizens of Marin County who have provided Tamarancho for the boys and we are grateful for your help in telling the story so well to the parents and boys of our County.

Medical Facility Show Was Success

Editor, Independent-Journal:

We are taking this opportunity to thank you, and the members of your staff, for the excellent coverage given our recent "Hobby Fair and Pre-Christmas Exhibit."

The success of these exhibits is greatly enhanced by the support of news media. Over 6,500 persons were attracted to the medical facility during the 10-day show and we recorded sales of 620 paintings.

Such results would not be possible without the assistance of newspapers, television and radio. Your cooperation and interest in our program is very much appreciated by everyone here.

Our Spring Fine Arts Show, which is scheduled to take place April 2 through April 5, will be a judged exhibit.

'Sandbagging' Practice Hit

Editor, Independent-Journal:

. . . Please let the Independent-Journal be the first paper in California to square off in this fight to eliminate the "sandbagging" practice of the State Compensation Insurance Fund to men that have been injured in their line of work and are then offered a settlement when they are down and need the money, even before their case is heard.

The unions are going to go after this practice of theirs and try to get some relief for the working man when he is justly entitled to their compensation.

A GOLF NEOPHYTE teed his ball for the fifth time, swung violently, and watched with jubilation as a small object whirled away at a 45-degree angle.

"I got that ball off at last," he chortled.

"Mister," sighed the caddie, "that's your wristwatch."

RELAXING ON the beach at Montego Bay in Jamaica, Dr. M. Rodgers was accosted by a total stranger who demanded free medical advice from him. After he had gotten rid of her, a companion complimented him on doing the job so speedily. "What did you tell her?" he asked.

"One word usually does the trick with those pests," chuckled good-natured Dr. Rodgers. "The word is: UNDRESS."

Will Success Spoil Humphrey? The Answer Is Probably Not

WASHINGTON—One of the most intriguing questions right now is: Will success spoil Hubert Humphrey?

Not that the vice presidency and its nearness to vast power will change the person of Humphrey. He couldn't become aloof or pompous or coy or distant to his trusted friends—even if he tried. He has come a long way from being mayor of Minneapolis and has proved himself to critics as well as admirers as even brighter, nicer, always responsible and trustworthy.

HUMPHREY WILL remain the same man in private. The question is whether he can adapt himself to his new and radically different role as vice president of the United States, a position of little authority and very limited initiative.

The nub of the problem is right here:

All his political life Humphrey has been an activist and subordinate to practically nobody.

NOW, FOR FOUR and perhaps eight years, he must continue to be an activist and totally subordinate to one man, Lyndon B. Johnson.

President Johnson wants Humphrey to be widely active, more active than any previous vice president and far more active than he himself was allowed to be under President John F. Kennedy.

But a vice president can act only when he is told to act. He can speak only when he is told to speak. He can improvise only when he has cleared his improvisings with the White House. That's not easy for Humphrey.

Will it work?

CAN THE EBULLIENT Hubert Humphrey, this most unsilent, rarely subordinate man of the Senate, become successfully subordinate all the time and silent for long periods?

Lyndon Johnson thinks so.

Hubert Humphrey thinks so.

That makes it about unanimous. They could well be right.

There are two reasons why it can work.

THE PRESIDENT understands the terrible frustrations of being vice president. He ought to, he suffered them more than most, because there never was a more restless, more would-be energetic vice president than Lyndon Johnson.

Humphrey knows the meaning of loyalty. It is a part of his nature. And he has the intellectual discipline to observe the total subordination without which no vice president can retain the confidence of the president or do little else but wait around for calamity.

President Johnson is already seeing to it that his vice president is given more opportunity to be active than he was. He has been assigned three large areas of executive direction: Supervision of all federal agencies dealing with civil rights, supervision of the anti-poverty and aeronautics and space programs.

UNLIKE THE Kennedy-Johnson relationship, which began in hostility and ended in respect, the Johnson-Humphrey relationship has long been close and cordial. They worked well together in the Senate. Today the president frequently solicits Humphrey's counsel. Humphrey doesn't have to be a yes man. He wouldn't know how.

It will not be smooth going all the time. No strong president is easy to work with and that means LBJ is not easy for his subordinates to work with. But Humphrey is going to work night and day for LBJ, not for HHH.

Obviously Humphrey's own prospect of running for the presidency himself rests upon Johnson's goodwill—and this, additionally, binds them together.

U.S. Aid Helping Russia In Africa

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—U. S. policy toward Africa couldn't be better tailor-made to help Russia capture control of that strife-torn continent and the vast Middle East oil reserves if it were drafted in Moscow.

THAT'S THE GRIM warning given U. S. and Iranian intelligence experts by Addul Chadir Owdeh, United Arab Republic secret police chief who defected to Iran.

The 27-year-old Owdeh, who fled Cairo on learning that Soviet KGB agents were to be given key positions in his organization, revealed that President Gamal Nasser and Algeria's President Ben Bella are using U. S. economic aid to finance Soviet-armed uprisings in the Congo and Yemen.

He reported that both Nasser and Ben Bella are working with the present Russian rulers to establish a ring of socialistic states throughout Africa, and that the Kremlin has promised the necessary arms to smash Israel and take over the rich oil fields of Kuwait, Libya, Iran and Aden within the next three to five years.

THE FORMER UAR secret police chief described the Organization of African Unity, being supported by the Johnson administration and the United Nations, as a Russian Trojan horse.

He said the OAU, which is pressuring Premier Moise Tshombe to take Congolese rebels into his government, is financed and controlled by the Kremlin, and that OAU Chairman Joseph Kenyatta is under Russian discipline.

According to Owdeh, Deputy Premier Aleksander Shelepin, former Soviet state security (KGB) chief, met with Nasser in Cairo last month for the specific purpose of mapping strategy on fitting the OAU into their plans for Africa.

ALTHOUGH OAU'S headquarters are located in Addis Ababa, reported Owdeh, all operational plans originate in Moscow and are channeled through Cairo to OAU Secretary General Diallo Telli of Guinea.

Owdeh stated that Shelepin promised Nasser all the arms needed for his war in Yemen and to aid the rebels in the Congo, but stressed that the UAR continue to seek as much economic help, especially food, from the U. S. as it can obtain, because of shortages in the Soviet bloc.

Owdeh, who wants to come to the U. S., gave the CIA experts flown to Tehran for the interview details and documents on how Cuba is being used by Russia to train Africans in guerrilla warfare.

He estimated there are now 3,000 African students in Cuba. They are being trained and returned to Africa via Algeria at the rate of about 200 a month.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S unexpected invitation to the Soviet rulers to visit the U. S. could easily put Speaker John McCormack (D-Mass.) on the spot.

If the Russians come while Congress is in session, as the State Department believes they will, McCormack will face a decision on whether to permit Premier Alexei Kosygin to address a joint session.

As House majority leader in 1959, McCormack led a successful backstage fight that blocked a State Department move to have then-Premier Nikita Khrushchev make such an address when he visited the U. S.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON is considering a career officer as the next assistant secretary of state for African affairs—Joseph Palmer II, native of Michigan, who holds rank of minister.

In 1956, Palmer served as deputy assistant secretary of state for African affairs. The word at the White House is that Palmer, a Harvard graduate, will replace Assistant Secretary G. Mennen Williams in February.

That month the president will also shift Secretary of State Dean Rusk to the United Nations to replace Ambassador Adlai Stevenson as U. S. representative. Rusk will attempt to initiate negotiations in the U. N. for a regional settlement in Southeast Asia with Communist China.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By JEFF GREER

Financial Eye May Soon Turn Toward Our Board Of Education

MARIN COUNTY residents should expect to hear much, much palaver about the county schools department and "fiscal responsibility" or "fiscal independence."

Come Feb. 1, our county board of education will host its opposite numbers plus officials from Sonoma, Alameda and Contra Costa counties, to take a look at the new state law that lets county boards of education take over "last say" budget powers over the county schools office if the boards of supervisors are willing to relinquish their pull on the purse-strings.

Our county education board and schools office have been taking a long, hard look at the new law, even before a recent cautionary editorial in the Independent-Journal, personable Supt. of Schools Virgil S. Hollis stresses.

THAT EDITORIAL pointed out that Marin County taxpayers have only X number of dollars to groan up; the supervisors must slice the general fund pie not only to feed the county schools office, but also law enforcement, public works and all the other departments.

Granting one department budget autonomy might let it become so involved in its own needs that it would lose sight of other departments' needs, the editorial warned. This might lead to a scramble for the general fund treasure trove and assorted charges of buccaneering, high mopery and short-changing.

Other county departments easily could learn to hate the idea of one department being able to write its own budgets, impervious to the board of supervisors saying, "Hmmm, that item for overstuffed chairs on Line so-and-so has gotta go."

Anyhow, we hope to hear how it is working in Sonoma County, at the Feb. 1 meeting.

POSSIBLY, there's another, political angle to this whole thing.

The refrain goes: "Responsible, responsible, who's got the buck?"

Traditionally, John Q. Taxpayer thinks it's his buck that is being passed around too freely, come tax bill time.

And, traditionally, county supervisors are jealous of their role as watchdogs of the general fund, except when braced by poor old John Q. about why the tax bill has gone into orbit. Then, they say:

"Why, just take a look at where the money goes. Two-thirds of your county tax bill is for education. For every dollar we spend to run the rest of the county, the school districts spend two. Go talk to them about economy. We can't help you."

The county schools office spends but a mite compared to the many school districts which set their own budgets. But if Hollis' department gains the same autonomy, will it become another target for buck-passing?

Tune in after Feb. 1 and see....

STRANGE, HOW imagination-gripping are certain tiny moments of Marin County climate.

For instance, walking in the bright morning down San Rafael's Fourth Street we were startled to hear the grunt of a fog horn. Suddenly, our mind was aboard a ship groping its way to port through a slick-flat sea merging solidly with the milky atmosphere only a few feet from the bow.

Or, motoring with eyes straining through the evening fog to pick out the white stripe and roadside markers of the Black Point cutoff—and looking up to see the moon and stars, gleaming brighter because they were being bathed by the moist air.

And again, leaving the Civic Center after a meeting that neared the hour of the pumpkin, finding the fog so wooly that all sounds are muffled and from a dozen paces away, Frank Lloyd Wright's creation looks like some monstrous science-fiction star-vessel drifting through dreamy space-dust, softly glowing through its eyebrowed windows and humming a quiet hum of power from somewhere deep inside.

ART BUCHWALD

This Lad Had A Dream, A Vision —He Wanted To Be President

WASHINGTON — It was many years ago, more years than I want to remember, when I was about 11 years old and I was sitting on the river bank with my closest friend, Lyndon, fishing.

"Lyndon," I said, "what do you want to be when you grow up?"

Lyndon blushed. "You'd make fun of me if I told you."

"No, I wouldn't, honest."

"WELL, I KNOW it sounds kind of crazy, but I'd like to be president of the United States."

"Heck," I said, "every boy wants to be that. I mean what do you really want to be?"

"Like I told you, president of the United States."

"Now, how is a boy with your accent ever going to become president?"

"I HAVEN'T FIGURED it out yet, but I know this. I love all the people and I want to be their leader."

"Lyndon," I said, "I want to talk some sense into you. I know this place ain't much around here, but you work it. Maybe you'll never be rich, and maybe you'll never be famous, but at least you'll have something to call your own."

"Arty Bird," Lyndon said, "I love this place. I love the cactus and I love the soil. I love the trees and the hills, I love the sun coming up in the morning and going down at night, I love fishing in the river and hunting in the hills. But if I have to live somewhere, I'd rather live in Washington."

I STUDIED MY friend and saw a far-off look in his eye.

"Well, let's, for argument's sake, say you were president of the United States. What would you do?" I asked him.

"First, I'd wage a war on poverty. Then I'd ask for medical care for old people. Then I'd ask for money to educate our children, kids like you and me who could easily be drop-outs. Then I'd build a new canal to replace the one in Panama."

"Where you going to get all the money for this?"

"I'd make some economies in our spending. For one thing, I'd turn out all the lights in the White House. Then I'd close the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and finally I'd do away with the Army Reserve."

"Lyndon, you're sure talking crazy."

"I KNOW IT'S a dream, but I have to start somewhere."

"You think you're going to get Congress to let you do all those things?"

"If they don't," Lyndon said, "I'll break their arms."

LYNDON PUT another worm on his hook. "You know something else? When I get elected, it's going to be by the largest number of votes any president ever got."

I rolled on the grass, laughing with glee. "You're really something, Lyndon!"

"You can laugh all you want to. But I'm willing to take you with me the whole way."

"No, thank you," I said. "I got plans of my own."

It's lucky I didn't take him up on his offer, because I heard years later that my boyhood friend and fishing partner, whose name was Lyndon Schwartz, gave up his dreams of becoming president, and went into the pants business with his father.

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

FUSSELMAN

FOR THE INFORMATION of those who may not have read this column last Friday—I quoted from an identical story which appeared in two different weekly County papers. The County Administrator was likened to Lazarus—and it said, "From being little more than an errand boy under the Fusselman-dominated Board of 1960, Alan Bruce has emerged four years later as the most powerful figure in county government and not the least of his prerogatives is the $5,000 raise in pay he received in 1964".

I say again—there is great danger in the proposition of a "most powerful figure in County government".

In 1958, 60 per cent of those voting turned down a charter which would have made the Administrator just that. Walter Lippmann said recently that 60 per cent to 75 per cent was a consensus of public opinion as contrasted with a 51 per cent majority.

MARIN IS A GENERAL law county operating under State law. Until the people vote to change this type of government, this provision should not be circumvented. This general law provides that there shall be five Supervisors to conduct the business of the county, together with the elected department heads and other department heads who may be appointed by the Board of Supervisors.

The power and strength is intended to be in the Board. The Grand Jury which recommended the raise in salary of the Supervisors to $9,600 a year, recognized this obligation and specified that at least 90 per cent of their time should be devoted to the job.

There has been a consistent effort to ignore this. Any change should be submitted to the voters for authorization.

There is a refusal to make this submission which will be discerned in a future "comment."

AS LONG AS SALARY has been mentioned in this article referred to, think this over. In addition to the $48,000 pay of the five Supervisors, the Administrator is receiving $20,000, and his assistant gets $12,700 a year.

An ordinance was passed which appears, on the face of it, to give the Administrator life and death control over all department heads both elective and appointive. Section No. 5 of the ordinance nullifies most of that attempt.

Next Friday there will be more about the salary situation and a discussion of the ordinance.

Let me say this—"Fusselman" never "dominated the Board in 1960" or any other year, nor would I permit anyone to dominate me.

home BUYERS in Central Marin are ALREADY living in Marin County by a ratio of more than 3½ to 1
(than from San Francisco)
Latest Research* shows that 69.7% of home buyers in Central Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	69.7
San Francisco	19.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves.
- And the PRIME MEDIUM for reaching Marin families is the Independent-Journal, covering 2 out of 3 homes in the County!!
- The I-J daily circulation is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner Combined!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

home BUYERS in Northern Marin are ALREADY living in Marin County by a ratio of almost 5 to 1

(More than from San Francisco)

Latest Research* shows that 71.9% of home buyers in Northern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	71.9
San Francisco	14.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves.
- And the PRIME MEDIUM for reaching Marin families is the Independent-Journal, covering 2 out of 3 homes in the County!!
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

A FAIRY RING IN THE WOODS?

Actually, it's a new split level home situated on an old Marin County estate. Open beam ceilings, luxurious carpeting throughout, sliding glass doors from dining room and bedroom to lounging deck and a secluded play area. Gorgeous elec. kitchen, beautifully tiled bath, cedar closets. This architectural beauty isn't quite a fairy ring, but everything about it, even it's price, $21,500, is enchanting.

home BUYERS in Southern Marin are ALREADY living in Marin County by a ratio of more than 2 to 1

(than from San Francisco)

Latest Research* shows that 65.9% of home buyers in Southern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	65.9
San Francisco	31.9

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves.
- And the PRIME MEDIUM for reaching Marin families is the Independent - Journal, covering 2 out of every 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

CALL FOR BIDS

CITY OF LARKSPUR, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City of Larkspur will receive sealed bids at the office of the City Clerk, City Hall, Larkspur, California, on or before 10:00 A.M. on the 3rd day of February, 1965, for the furnishing of all labor, materials, and services required for the following designated project:

MAGNOLIA AVENUE IMPROVEMENT
Project 34 SS — Murray Avenue to Estelle Avenue.
Project 35 SS — Dartmouth to Bon Air Road.

Each bid shall be made in accordance with the plans, specifications and contract documents prepared therefor, now on file at the office of City Engineer B. J. Whitlow, 29 Mary St., San Rafael, where they may be examined, and copies thereof be obtained upon deposit of $10.00 per set, which deposit will be refunded upon return of such copies in good condition, on or before thirty days after opening of bids. Bids shall be submitted upon proposal forms furnished by the City Engineer, and shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check, currency or bid bond, equal to ten per cent of the aggregate amount of the bid, which amount shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into the contract, if awarded him, and will file the contract bonds required within fifteen days after notice that his bid has been accepted.

The City Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids, and to waive any irregularity in any bid received.

Bidders are notified that, pursuant to law, the City Council has ascertained the general prevailing rate of wages and rates in the locality in which the work is to be performed, for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the contract, and the prevailing rate so determined is set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein. It shall be mandatory that all persons employed in the execution of the contract be paid not less than said specific wages and rates, and that existing labor agreements relative to overtime, holidays, and other special provisions, be recognized.

Bids received by the City Clerk will be opened and read publicly at the time, date and place above specified, and will thereafter be tabulated and submitted to the City Council for consideration.

Dated: January 6, 1965.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Society Shrinks From Video Eye

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Television is turning out to be a bulwark against any public revival of the tattered remnants of high society. Some time back, NBC-TV covered the "April in Paris Ball" in New York, and the comical spectacle may have polished off any remaining awe regarding society in that city. And Wednesday night and early yesterday, the same network covered President Johnson's inaugural ball, and that takes care of Washington.

"Society," of course, is a nebulous term. For example, the high society is not necessarily the Great Society — and visa versa. Furthermore, one cannot imagine genuinely traditional high society ever gathering en masse at any place that would allow a television camera to poke around; until television, society's greatest asset was that few persons ever saw or heard an honest-to-goodness real live socialite. What is more, the inaugural ball may well have seemed perfectly delightful to those present. But on television it appeared about as elegant as Saturday night at the Hollywood Palladium.

It is true, of course, that the inaugural ball is not so much a society function or even a dance as it is a way of life. Nevertheless, the televising of the various late-night celebrations around the capital may have left many viewers wondering about the reputation if Washington as a center of social elegance. I would not have been surprised at all if someone had announced that I was tuned in to Perth Amboy, N.J. Alas, the functions had the flavor of a sort of night-time counterpart of chicken-a-la-king luncheons. When Adlai Stevenson was introduced to rousing applause, I would have bet a week's salary the ball did not tickle his aesthetic senses.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Jack Lemmon visits NBC-TV's "Today" program Wednesday ... next Friday, "Today" offers a discussion about drug addiction among teen-agers from well-to-do families ... CBS-TV's Paul Ford series, "The Baileys of Balboa," will expire in a few months.

Marin School Enrollment Up 1.7 Per Cent

Fall semester enrollment in Marin County's public schools rose 1.7 per cent last year over 1963, the State Board of Education reported yesterday.

Enrollment in last year's fall semester stood at 42,077 students, 2,828 more than the fall semester of 1963, the board said.

The board reported no double sessions in Marin during the fall semester last year, but 222 pupils in Fairfax School District were on double session as of December, according to district board president Laurence G. Hermann.

The 222 compares with 126 students on double, or half-day, sessions, in the fall semester of 1963. Fairfax trustees have just the district when they are installed.

Youth Authority Aide Honored

Robert F. Girard, 103 Wolfe Grade, Kentfield, was honored for volunteer work with the California Youth Authority, at a dinner meeting last night in Sacramento.

He received one of four outstanding service award plaques presented by the youth authority, for his work as a member of the trade advisory council at Deuel Vocational Institution at Tracy.

Girard, who is manager of industrial relations for Dalmo Victor Co., established the Committee of 1,000 in Alameda and Contra Costa counties to help find jobs and rehabilitate young parolees.

Chorus Invited

The Bel Aire School chorus from Reed School District has been invited to sing in a Washington Birthday service Feb. 21 at Grace Cathedral in San Francisco. The chorus is made up of 60 fourth, fifth and sixth graders, directed by Hyman I. Krongard.

Vehicle Inspection

Annual inspection of private vehicles which regularly go in and out of Hamilton Air Force Base started this week and will continue until all have been inspected.

Six Tam Orchestra Members To Perform

Six Tamalpais High School orchestra members will perform with the all-high school orchestra at the Pacific Music Festival at the civic auditorium in Stockton Jan. 30.

Selected on the basis of scholarship and teacher recommendation, they are Norma Powell, cellist; Walter Provines; William Spaulding, string bass player and Richard Caldwell, flutist, all of Mill Valley; Owen Brown, violinist, Marin City, and Curtis Baker, cellist, of Sausalito.

Radio Roundtable

San Anselmo resident Richard Godfrey, son of radio-TV personality Arthur Godfrey, will join sons of Fred Waring and Alexander King tomorrow in describing "what it's like to grow up in the shadow of a famous father" on a roundtable at 4:10 p.m. on radio station KCBS.

Youth Program To Be Described

Mrs. C. Fosberg Hughes of San Leandro will describe the Youth for Understanding program to the Novato Community Ambassadors at 8 p.m. Monday at the Novato High School cafeteria.

The program, sponsored by the State Department, is to assist in educational exchange programs for international students. Mrs. Hughes is from Michigan where the program started.

The Community Ambassadors will also elect officers at the meeting.

Poetry By Marin Girl Is Published

Four poems by San Rafael High graduate Cornelia Prescott have been published in the 1965 edition of Et Al, publication of the Intercollegiate Poetry Congress, Lewisburg, Pa.

Miss Prescott, a sophomore at University of Washington, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Prescott of 6 Gloria Drive, San Rafael.

Job Training Center Is Set

PLEASANTON (AP)—A dormant section of Camp Parks, a former Air Force Base near Pleasanton, will be reactivated to train jobless young men and boys.

The Office of Economic Opportunity awarded a $13.4 million contract to Litton Industries yesterday to operate a Job Corps Training Center at the camp.

The Beverly Hills firm will administer the center in cooperation with the University of California for a two-year period. The center will train 2,000 unemployed persons 16 to 21 years old from all parts of the country.

Greeks On Move

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — One out of every 12 Greek peasants moved to the city in the past 10 years, the agriculture bank of Greece reported.

Jewish Welfare Fund Drive Aides Named

Richard H. Friedman of Mill Valley and Sol Silver of Sausalito have been named co-chairmen of the Marin County phase of the 1965 fund campaign for the Jewish Welfare Federation.

They will recruit volunteers to help the 2.7 million-dollar campaign to support 36 local and national agencies including the Marin Jewish Community Center, Mt. Zion Hospital, Homewood Terrace and Jewish Family Service Agency.

To Band Conference

Twenty-two Redwood High School students will travel to band conference at University of Pacific in Stockton on Jan. 30. One-third of the school's band and one-third of its orchestra will perform.

MARIN FILM FARE

'Outrage' On Hub Screen; 'Goodbye Charlie' Playing

By LES DARD

Here's the Marin film fare for this weekend:

TAMALPAIS THEATER

"The Outrage," starring Paul Newman, Claire Bloom and Laurence Harvey, is now playing.

The film is based on a celebrated Japanese film of 1951, "Rashomon," which was later written into a stage play. It has been moved from ancient Japan to the 19th Century American southwest.

The film begins in a crumbling railroad station. A preacher, a prospector and a seedy con-man discuss a trial just finished. The con-man inquires about the crime and we learn conflicting versions in flashbacks.

A Mexican bandit (Newman) apprehended a traveling Southerner and his beautiful wife. He rapes the wife as the husband watches. The husband is later killed, a knife in his chest.

The bandit insists he killed the husband in a fair fight. The wife claims she killed her husband because he sneeringly accused her of enjoying the interlude with the bandit.

Edward G. Robinson is most believable as the genial conman, with William Shatner playing the clergyman, and Howard DaSelva the prospector.

SEQUOIA THEATER

A dead friend is reincarnated as a girl to provide Tony Curtis no end of headaches in "Goodbye Charlie," starting Sunday.

The original Charlie is killed early in the film by an irate husband. But as soon as he's changed to Debbie Reynolds, he — or rather, she — turns up Curtis's house.

He might be a girl, but he's soon up to same old tricks, and is killed again.

Walter Matthau plays the man who did away with Charlie the first time, and Laura Devon as Matthau's wife, kills Charlie's reincarnation.

NOVATO THEATER

The appealing story starts when money for 10-year-old Emil's grandmother is stolen from him on a Berlin-bound bus. The culprit is a little man in a loud checked suit, played by Walter Slezak.

When a tribe of sympathetic youngsters play detective to recover Emil's money, they find that the crook and his cohorts are planning to rob a bank.

The second feature is aimed more at the teen set. "For Those Who Think Young," stars James Darren.

101 DRIVE-IN

Marlon Brando exposes his brand of comedy in "Bedtime Story," which starts tonight. David Niven, Shirley Jones and Dody Goodman share the bill of laughter.

The setting is Europe. A bogus prince — Niven — and a newly discharged Army corporal — Brando — team up to con wealthy women.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Playing from tonight to Sunday is "The Prize," which makes a cloak-and-dagger thriller of Irving Wallace's best seller.

Six Nobel Prize winners gather on the eve of the award ceremonies in Stockholm. Paul Newman plays a blase American novelist, impressed only with the $50,000 prize money.

Hiss better nature is revealed when he detects international intrigue right under the noses of the Nobel committee. How he exposes the plot makes a suspenseful story with a refreshing closeup of Stockholm scenery.

A sort of accidental spoof of "The Guns of Navarone," done by the British is the co-feature. "Invasion Quartet" is the story of four wounded soldiers in an English hospital who set out to silence "Herman," a big German gun across the Channel.

RAFAEL THEATER

The gilt-edged hit of the year, "Goldfinger," is held over again, with Sean Connery in the lead role of British Secret Service Agent 007 — the intrepid James Bond.

In this one, Bond's working against one of the cleverest fiends of his career, Auric Goldfinger. He plans to destroy the gold at Fort Knox, so as to increase the value of his own gold tremendously, and bankrupt the United States at the same time.

FAIRFAX THEATER

Held over again is "The Girl With Green Eyes," a film of tender beauty returning to the screen Rita Tushingham, the tantalizing tom-boy of "Taste of Honey."

LARK THEATER

The French spoof of the thriller type movie is held over. "That Man From Rio" stars Jean Paul Belmondo as the man who leads an almost "Mad, Mad" chase from Paris to Rio to Brasilia.

'Stamp Out Sickness' Shot Program Announced

An immunization schedule for Marin County families, recommended by the "Stamp Out Sickness" Bay Area immunization program committee, was announced yesterday by Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer and member of the committee.

"Adults as well as children should get polio, smallpox and tetanus immunizations if they do not already have them," she said. "Boosters from smallpox and tetanus should be taken every four or five years."

The committee, composed of Bay Area health department and medical society representatives, has recommended immunizations for diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus and polio be given children one to three months old. Booster shots for the first three diseases should be given after the age of 18 months and again at the age of four.

The first smallpox xaccination should be administered before the age of one and every five years after that, Dr. Albrecht said. Measles immunization should be received at the age of nine months.

Stamp Club Sets Auctions

Regular stamp auctions will be inaugurated by the Tamalpais Stamp Club at its meeting at 7:30 p.m. today in room 118 of Redwood High School, Larkspur.

The auctions will be held at all the club's twice-a-month meetings hereafter, said Donald M. McPherson of Corte Madera, president. He said non-members may attend. The club meets the second and fourth Fridays of each month.

Maj. Robert Enright of Hamilton Air Force Base will be auctioneer, assisted by Carl T. Endemann of Larkspur and E. Robert Nashick of Greenbrae.

Nursing Refresher Course Funds Set

Congress has allocated $28,406 for four six-week training sessions for unemployed nurses at the College of Marin, according to Rep. Donald H. Clausen, R-Crescent City.

Prospective students in the refresher course for general duty nurses may apply at the State Department of Employment office, 805 E Street, San Rafael, for admission. Instructor will be Mrs. Charlotte Rapsilber of Novato.

Bark Gets Award

The Future Journalists of America announced recently that Redwood High School's newspaper, the Bark, has been named one of America's finest scholastic publications and has been awarded the F.J.A. Americana award for journalistic excellence.

Sausalito Film Society Series Set

First program in the newly organized Sausalito Film Society's six-program series will be presented at 8:30 p.m. next Friday in Campbell Memorial Hall, Santa Rosa and San Carlos avenues, Sausalito.

"Miracle in Milan," directed by Vittorio de Sica, and "Palladini," an animated short designed by Emmanuel Luzzati, will open the series.

Membership in the society, which will present programs Feb. 12 and Feb. 26, March 12, and 26 and a special children's program at 2 p.m. Feb 28, may be purchased through Lois McCord, program director, 206 Bulkley Avenue, Sausalito.

Miller Group To Give Books

The Clem Miller Memorial Library Committee will give $500 worth of books on civil liberties to the Marin County Library at the Civic Center, committee chairman Sali Lieberman said today.

The gift is the result of donations by friends and associates of the late First District congressman. Miller was killed in a plane crash while campaigning in 1962.

The $500 purchase is being made from a list drawn up by a group of law professors at University of California. Dedication ceremonies will be held at the library when the first books are presented, Lieberman said.

Painting Exhibit

An exhibit of new paintings by Nan S. Fowler is on display at the realty office of Polly McNaught, in Sausalito. The show consists of Miss Fowler's new impressionist and abstract oils.
